Preface

I have been in the church right from my childhood. I know everything about church settings. I grew up to become a preacher. I couldn't explain to any man what was going on inside me. I had a series of revelations about the Father and Jesus Christ, which I couldn't share with anyone. Yet, I lived the kind of life I didn't want. From my childhood, I knew I was on a mission on this earth, but I had no one to speak to about it, despite growing up under my maternal grandfather, who was a Pastor.

As a child, I helped conduct deliverance services for those who were oppressed or possessed by demons in our local church. As an adult, I preached in churches. I spoke in tongues. I conducted deliverance for the oppressed. I prayed and healed people, and they glorified God.

In late 2009, Almighty God visited me in a way I never expected. He introduced Himself to me as my Father, and that Jesus Christ is His Son. This statement shook me to the core of my being. He didn't come alone. He came with Two other People: Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. They spoke to me and made me understand the kind of message They were sending me. Henceforth, I could distinguish between the Three of Them: Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. From that day, everything I had learnt and believed about God and Jesus Christ changed forever.

Sometimes, my wife and I could be having a normal conversation between husband and wife; suddenly, my wife's countenance would change. We're no more husband and wife but Father and son. This is a mystery that nobody else seems to understand. This is the life I've been living for the past 15 years. I have never left the corner of my room to go elsewhere for prayers. I've never gone to the mountain or locked myself in a room for days, weeks or months. Almighty God decided to come to me and made Himself known to me. This is a privilege I do not deserve. Though I was created for such an assignment, yet I am a sinner. He has revealed various mysteries to me, mysteries He hasn't revealed to any man since He created the earth. With all these comes sacrifice. My wife and I cannot live the kind of life we want to live. We cannot make decisions of our own. Almighty God decides for us.

Almighty God told me He surveyed the whole earth, and nowhere is good. He wants to come down and cleanse the earth, but before He does it, He is sending me to speak to all His children to prepare them for His coming. He said if He should allow Jesus Christ to come down today and put an end to everything, nobody would go with Him, including me, because we all possess the spirits He doesn't want. Whoever doesn't have the spirit of anger has the spirit of sexual immorality. And whoever doesn't have the spirit of gossip has the spirit of jealousy, and so on. If Jesus Christ were to appear today, nobody would go with him. As a result of this, He is sending me to speak to His children so they can cleanse themselves. He then gave me the Ordinance of cleansing, which consists of confession, restitution, deliverance, and baptism. This is cleansing.

Jehovah God Almighty gave me this message from December 7th, 2013, to December 22nd, 2013. He commanded me to keep and seal it until the appointed time. The time has now come to release it to the whole world. I pray the Holy Spirit will enlighten you as you read it.

Introduction

In this message, Almighty God addressed various moral and spiritual issues facing the world, particularly concerning idolatry, witchcraft, same-sex relationships or marriage, and the separation of humans from animals.

Concerning The Whole World

Almighty God addresses global issues, with a particular focus on Great Britain, the United States, Africa, Christians, and Pastors.

Almighty God asserts His authority over everything on earth and outside the Earth. He emphasises the consequences of sin and the importance of living in harmony and holiness. Almighty God identifies Himself as the Creator and Authority over all creation. He emphasises that everything He created is good and that sin is an abomination to Him. He discusses the creation of Adam and Eve, highlighting the importance of traditional marriage between a man and a woman. He warns against practices such as idolatry and witchcraft, stating that nations engaging in these will face divine wrath. The consequences of evil actions impact individuals and their descendants, resulting in ongoing suffering.

Almighty God asserts that the spirits of those who're wronged cry out for justice, and their blood does not rest. He emphasises the need for leaders to act justly and care for their people, warning that failure to do so will result in punishment. Almighty God calls for the release of His servants who are imprisoned for proclaiming His name, stating that their cries reach Him. He highlights the importance of teaching children His ways to prevent them from becoming criminals. God states that any law contrary to His will invites His wrath upon nations. He asserts that true religion is based on holiness rather than merely following rituals or traditions. Almighty God warns that those who serve idols or engage in evil practices will not find peace or blessings. He expresses His desire for harmony among all people, regardless of religion. He reiterates that He is the ultimate judge and that all actions will have consequences in this life and in the life to come. He concludes with a call for repentance and a return to holiness to avoid divine judgment.

Almighty God calls for national repentance. He emphasises His ownership of the Earth and calls nations to repent for their sins and injustices. God claims ownership of the Earth and expresses disappointment in countries like Great Britain and the United States for their moral failures. He highlights the historical context of the slave trade, stating it was allowed to bring Africans to serve Him. He warns that nations that serve idols and engage in evil will face His wrath and judgement. God urges leaders to unite and repair the damage done to the Earth and its people. He emphasises that all humans, regardless of race or religion, are His creations and deserve dignity and respect. Almighty God states that He will abandon those who commit evil acts to demons, and they shall face the consequences of their actions. He promises blessings to those who serve Him faithfully and live righteous lives. The overall message is a call for repentance, unity, and a return to divine principles, aimed at restoring peace and prosperity.

Almighty God emphasises the consequences of disobedience and the urgent need for humanity to repent. He declares His authority as the Almighty and warns of impending destruction for those who disobey His will. He challenges humanity to provide three reasons why they should not be destroyed, emphasising their sinful actions. God references the suffering of souls from past wars and the need for peace rather than conflict. He reminds humanity of the blessings they enjoy, attributing them to His guidance and power rather than to their efforts. He warns that all good deeds are in vain unless they're aligned with His will. He also highlights the importance of recognising His presence and authority in all aspects of life. Ultimately, God calls for immediate reflection and change in behaviour to avoid His wrath.

Almighty God decreed judgement on human laws. God discusses His authority, the consequences of human laws, and the importance of repentance and worship. He asserts ownership over everything and emphasises the importance of divine ordinances. He stated that the introduction of same-sex marriage laws contradicts His creation and purpose for humanity. God references the historical captivity of people serving idols and the need for spiritual freedom through confession and repentance. Almighty God criticises the legal system for failing to uphold justice, highlighting the wrongful imprisonment of innocent individuals. He warns that failure to acknowledge His laws will result in His wrath being poured out upon the nation. God emphasises the significance of worship and prayer in blessing the land and the consequences of suppressing such gatherings. He concludes by contrasting the promotion of sinful behaviour with the divine intention for human relationships and procreation.

Almighty God emphasises His love and guidance, urging humanity to trust Him and act compassionately towards others. God expresses disappointment in humanity's failure to follow His will, particularly addressing Great Britain as a chosen nation. He emphasises the importance of compassion, urging the immediate release of those who are locked up for seeking a better life and the need for forgiveness. God emphasises that true economic prosperity stems from following His will, as He is the ultimate Owner of wealth. He warns that blessings will be withdrawn from nations that misuse their resources, emphasising the importance of righteous actions.

Introduction

Almighty God emphasises the need for peace, unity, and moral integrity among people, warning against violence and immorality. God calls for individuals to promote peace and resolve conflicts without violence, emphasising the importance of dialogue. A warning is issued to the whole world, urging people to change their ways or face divine consequences. God highlights the significance of traditional family structures, condemning homosexuality as an abomination that disrupts societal harmony. He stresses that all humans are created by Him and should not worship idols or deviate from His teachings. He concludes with a reminder of His power to judge and the necessity for a pure heart in all actions.

Concerning Great Britain And The United States Of America

Almighty God emphasises the consequences of idolatry and evil actions, urging nations to maintain holiness and connection to Him. God warns that nations straying from Him will face severe consequences, including disasters and suffering. He condemned idolatry, calling for nations to recognise the true source of their blessings. Almighty God emphasises the interconnectedness of families and the repercussions of evil deeds that span across generations. He stresses that the prosperity of Great Britain is a result of its historical connection to Him, which is now at risk. Almighty God asserts that holiness is essential for blessings, while evil actions will lead to inevitable downfall. He concludes with a reminder that neglecting spiritual responsibilities will result in a lack of solutions during times of trouble.

Almighty God warns against wickedness and destruction. He emphasises His presence, warns against evil actions, and calls for repentance to avoid impending wrath. Almighty God created both good and evil and warns that turning away from Him leads to destruction. God expresses concern for the souls of soldiers who died in unjust wars, highlighting the pain of their families. He emphasises the importance of seeking mercy and changing one's ways to avoid His wrath. God emphasises that while destruction is easy and inevitable, repairing the damage caused by evil actions is difficult. God assures us that He listens to every word we speak and holds us accountable for our words. The call to repentance is urgent, as ignoring it may lead to severe consequences for future generations.

Concerning Africa

Almighty God emphasises the importance of holiness and obedience to His word, highlighting that Africans, as His lastborn, have strayed from Him despite their suffering during slavery. He asserts that growth and understanding can emerge through hardship but warns of divine wrath for those who doubt.

Almighty God emphasises His sovereignty, the consequences of denying Him, and the importance of following His teachings. He asserts that He owns everything, including land, water, and light. He warns that denying His existence can lead to suffering and chaos, such as a lack of essential resources like water and electricity. Almighty God claims authority over both Heaven and Hell, stating that all paths ultimately lead to Him. He highlights the plight of noble children imprisoned due to societal neglect and the influence of Satan. He emphasises the need for individuals to follow His teachings to avoid destruction and suffering. God expresses His power to destroy and restore, urging humanity to heed His warnings and prepare for His coming.

Almighty God conveys a divine message urging nations to repent for their actions, seek reconciliation, and acknowledge His sovereignty. God emphasises that Great Britain enjoys blessings without recognising the sacrifices of their forefathers who prayed for righteousness. He warns that the “bucket of water of righteousness and holiness” that their forefathers fetched for them is running dry due to the denial of His existence. Almighty God states that if divine suffering is decreed for 99 years, it will not be lifted until the period is over. He calls for leaders to settle disputes and apologise for the wars and suffering caused by their actions. The souls of soldiers who died young are crying for peace. God highlights the pain of mothers who lost their only children to war, urging compassion and accountability. He emphasises the importance of confessing sins and avoiding evil to avert divine wrath falling on future generations. He concludes with a reminder that He does not support evil and calls for a return to righteousness.

Almighty God conveys a divine message urging repentance, warning against sin, and emphasising His authority over creation. God expresses disappointment in leaders and Christians for straying from His teachings and warns of impending judgment. He emphasises the importance of living by His word to avoid destruction and suffering. God highlights the spiritual consequences of immoral relationships, stating that the spirits of past partners remain within individuals. He asserts His ownership over the Earth, money, and resources, indicating that He can withdraw blessings at any time. He warns that nations promoting sinful behaviours will face curses and societal rejection. He stated that the consequences of sin can affect future generations, perpetuating cycles of single parenthood and spiritual issues. God calls for a return to faith and obedience, reminding us that He never changes and will act against evil. The warning is clear: ignoring His message will lead to severe repercussions, both individually and nationally.

Almighty God emphasises the importance of rejecting idolatry and obeying His commandments to achieve peace and blessings. God expresses a deep love for Africa, referring to it as “the apple of My eye,” but warns against idolatry. He described idolatry as an abomination that hinders prayers and blessings, leading to spiritual and material poverty. God highlights the consequences of greed and selfishness, stating that wealth can be lost to demonic influences. God calls for a return to obedience, emphasising that faithful service to Him involves doing good and helping others. He asserts that teaching children moral values is essential to prevent future generations from repeating mistakes. He warns that serving idols invites spirits that can disrupt lives and lead to suffering and hardship. God reminds us that every action has consequences, and individuals must work for their spiritual destinations after death. Ultimately, Almighty God calls for unity, peace, and adherence to divine principles to avoid judgment.

Concerning Christians

Almighty God emphasises the consequences of abandoning His ordinances, highlighting spiritual corruption and the impact on future generations. God warns that abandoning His ordinances leads to spiritual abandonment and eventual destruction. He asserts that engaging in sinful behaviours, such as adultery and fornication, invites evil spirits that affect individuals and their descendants. God states that those who claim to serve Him while engaging in sin will face severe consequences, including Hellfire. He emphasises that spiritual and physical actions are interconnected, and evil practices can lead to widespread societal issues, such as recession. The message is a final warning to humanity, urging a choice between life and destruction and a return to righteousness. Nations that deny His existence or deviate from His teachings will suffer consequences, including famine and social unrest. Almighty God asserts that He is not a wicked Father but desires to guide humanity away from destruction. Ultimately, individuals must choose between serving Him or succumbing to evil, as both paths have significant repercussions.

Introduction

Concerning Pastors

Almighty God discusses the importance of divine selection for Pastors, the consequences of greed, and the need for spiritual teaching. God emphasises the distinction between being chosen by Him and self-appointment as a Pastor. He warns that greed among Pastors leads to fear and exploitation of congregants, causing them to avoid church. The Almighty God calls for Pastors to teach their congregations about spiritual matters and the consequences of sin. He highlights the importance of forgiveness and the need for accountability in addressing sins within the church community. God stresses that earthly actions have spiritual consequences, including the potential for torment after death. Ultimately, He calls for a return to holiness and proper spiritual guidance to prevent the chains of sin.

Concerning The Whole World

I Am the Almighty God. Jehovah is My name. I Am the Great I Am That I Am. I Am the Authority. I Am the Mighty-Man-In-Battle. I Am the Self-Existing Father. I Am Uncreated Creature. I Am the Creator of the universe. I Am the Ancient of Days. I Am the Great Oldman. I Am the Originator. I Am Omnipotent God. I Am Omniscient God. I Am Omnipresent God. I Am Omniscient God. I Am a Holy Father. I Am Unbeatable God. I Am Undestroyable God. I Am Unfathomable God. I Am Unmovable God. I Am Unstoppable God. I Am Unshakable God. I Am Unaffordable God. I Am the Origin of life. There is no life without Me. Nobody can buy Me with money. Heaven is My throne, and the Earth is My farm. Everything I created is good. If nobody praises Me, I will praise Myself. I Am proud of Myself and everything I created. Nobody will praise his name above My name. Nobody will praise the name of anybody more than the name of Almighty God. Everything started in Me, and everything will end in Me. I Am All-In-All.

When I created everything, I was happy. I created one man so the Earth could be populated through him. I also brought a woman out of the children I put into the body of the man. I only created Adam when I created man. I brought Eve out of him. That's why doctors can bring out children from your body. I created a doctor to be a physical doctor, not a spiritual doctor like a Pastor. I brought Eve out of the children I put into the body of Adam. That was why she was his bone of bone and flesh of flesh. Both man and woman came out of Adam. Therefore, you will not do whatever I didn't create. You can only bring out seeds from a man's body to a woman's body. You can neither bring out seeds from man to man nor woman to woman. Any doctor that does this is in trouble because he will destroy the whole Earth. All his generation will suffer. Whether you're a president or a prime minister, a doctor or a lawyer, you're in trouble if you oppress people. I Am the Almighty God.

I was the One who purposely allowed the slave trade because My children were worshipping idols. I intentionally scattered them abroad because idolatry always works with witchcraft. It's very hard to destroy the spirit of witchcraft. In Britain, they weren't deep into worshipping idols like other countries. That was why I sent them to take My children as slaves so they could teach them My ways. But they were into witchcraft. That was why I gave them the Ordinance to kill whoever had the spirit. If you have the spirit of witchcraft, everything you do is evil. The spirit of witchcraft made them introduce the law that a man can marry a man and a woman can marry a woman. Any family that gets involved in such a practice is in trouble. Anybody who makes the law that a man should marry a man and a woman should marry a woman is in trouble. You have said it and have gone, but the consequence will be upon you. The generation you left behind will never see peace. I know the punishment I will give to all of you. You will suffer. Everywhere will shake! I Am the Almighty God. Whatever you know how to do, you should continue to do it. If you know how to kill, you should continue with it. However, whenever you die, your torment will never end. Nobody will tell you it's enough. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the Great I Am That I Am. My son, tell them they're all stupid. They are stupid! The animals and idols they serve respect Me! They respect the Father!

Most of the time, the evil you're doing wanted to take you away; I would go there and rescue you. If you built a house and didn't roof it properly and the roof is leaking, what happens when rain falls? All your property will be wet. That's what each country is doing. When the rain of evil begins to fall, it will destroy your house because you've crossed your boundary. Your hands are full of evil. Any country that signs to do evil should know that I Am the One who created good and evil, but I didn't create you to do evil. Those of you who locked up My Prophets and Pastors in prison because they proclaimed My name should know you're in trouble. You did it, and it's good for you, but you're in trouble. Your religion shouldn't destroy or confuse another person. You're free to do whatever you want to do, but don't use your religion to kill people. If you choose to serve a cow and another person decides not to, leave that person alone. Whenever you serve your cow, you can dance and sing for it. That's what you believe. Nothing concerns another person. That's what you choose to do. However, that is an abomination to Me, the Almighty God. That was why I destroyed the whole Earth in the time of Noah. Whatever you see, you and your generation will manage it. A cow is food for you to eat! I created a cow for you to eat. I created clean and unclean animals. A cow is food for you to eat. I Am the Almighty God.

When I created Adam and Eve, what happened to animals? They lived together. Did the animals kill them? No! Didn't I create Adam before I created Eve? Why didn't he have sexual intercourse with an animal? Because an animal is an animal! You can only play with animals, no matter how beautiful they are. I created many of them for you to look at and be happy. I Am the One who created them. There are some flowers; as you see their beauty, you adore them. You can only look at them and give Me glory. They make you happy in your environment. It's like a toy you bought for your children to play with; that's how I created them. In a situation where you take an animal as a human being, you defile yourself. You defile yourself! There is a limit between human beings and animals. No matter how much you play with animals, you mustn't kiss them. No matter how beautiful she is, you mustn't kiss her. You don't put your tongue into the tongue of an animal. All this is an abomination to Me. You should touch your tongue with your faeces rather than kiss an animal or put your tongue into the tongue of an animal because that faeces comes from your body. It is an abomination for you to put your tongue into the tongue of an animal. If I don't tell you before I do what I want to do, you will not know where you've offended Me. The whole Earth has sinned! They have sinned! This is a message to the whole world. I Am the Almighty God.

Water will sweep all of you away without you knowing why the water is raging war. The water is raging war because you committed sin! Can you set a boundary so that water doesn't flow? Can you hold the air? All these things are spirits! They're angry! No matter how you keep a pet in your house, you must know that a pet is an animal. There is a limit between you and an animal. You must recognise animals as animals. You shouldn't mingle animals with human beings. You shouldn't use animals to surround yourself. The spirit of an animal is different from the Spirit of a human being. You can play with an animal, but there is a limit because My Spirit is inside you. In a situation whereby you play with an animal, lick an animal, kiss an animal, it's an abomination to Me.

Through all those things you do, you defile yourself. That was why I separated everything from each other. All of you should go into My word. I said let Us create Man in Our image. When I was creating all those things, man wasn't there. I separated man from everything. If I separated man from all those things, why do you carry abomination to yourself? Different kinds of sicknesses break out every day. You cannot see them because they're spirits. Doctors have no power to cure any sickness. I, the Almighty God alone, have the power to cure sickness. Thousands of people die every day. You don't even know why they're dying. I Am the Same God yesterday, today, and forever.

What all of you don't know is this: If you drink milk from a can, it's very hard to destroy it. A can will be there for many years; it will never decay. I want all of you to listen to this very carefully! Instead of you to throw it away, you will store it somewhere. As you're storing the cans, they're consuming your space. What will you do? You will recycle them to produce milk again. That's how I recycle human beings. All of you are like cans of milk. As you live and die, you will return to this Earth again, but you can never tell whether you've been here before. You're happy whenever you kill somebody because that person is gone. However, the same person will return as a little child to live again. You will die and come back to live as well. The evil you did has been wiped away from your memory. Nobody knows anything about it, but I, the Almighty God that created you know. Whenever you return to this Earth, somebody will also do the same thing to you. Nothing goes for nothing! You will not see peace as you cut that person's life short.

There are some cans; you should recycle them because they're good, but you cannot. Why? There is a reason for it. You cannot use human beings to compare ordinary can. Those who did evil, I, the Almighty Father, cannot recycle them again. They must receive their punishment wherever they are. That's why you see their Spirit hovering around everywhere. They want to return to this Earth because they don't have peace. Your Spirit can't be destroyed. I Am the only One who knows how I do it. That's why I said there is life for you wherever you go. If you go to the Dark-Planet, there is life for you there. However, you cannot compare the Dark-Planet to this Earth. If you're on this Earth, it's like a bag inside another bag; people will only see the one outside. They cannot see the one inside. That's how the spirits on this Earth are, and they'll begin to torment you. The spirits are vulnerable. They see you, but you cannot see them. You don't know how to appease them. I Am the Almighty God.

I Am the Almighty Father. I Am the One speaking to all of you. If you like, you should listen. I Am the only One who can give all of you money again. How can the whole world have money again? How can each country have money again? If you're a president, settle your people. If My children are angry, I Am angry too. Why Am I angry? Because of all the abominations you do everywhere! All the abomination you do affects My children. As it affects My children, it also affects Me, the Father, because the spirits will always torment you. Who are those doing the abominations? They are the children of the Father. Where are the spirits? They live inside each individual. That was why I created doctors. The work of Pastors, presidents, doctors, and lawyers is not the same. It's a different ball game entirely. If you're a president, you don't control doctors. A doctor is a physical healer, while a Pastor is a spiritual healer. The Father gave him the brain to be a doctor. Not everybody can be a doctor. He is to deal with human beings, but not all areas. I can say you should be dealing with eyes, another person dealing with nose, and another person dealing with ears. You cannot use your own to control another person. Whatever profession I give you, use it well. Don't use it to do evil. Whatever you choose, there is gain in it. I Am the Almighty God.

All of you should stop doing evil. All of you should stop killing people. Satan is the one using all of you. I love the whole Earth. I love My children. If I didn't love you, I would have given you only one egg so that when you break it, you cannot have another one again. What comes out of an egg? Is it not chicken? If I Am a wicked Father, I would have given you only one. I Am not a wicked Father; that's why a woman has many eggs in her womb. What can freeze your eggs? What can render all your eggs useless without function? You should go and ask the doctor. There are some women; no matter how you put the seed of a man into their egg, they cannot produce any child. Why? Because Satan has frozen their eggs, and no matter how you do it, nothing will come out of it. Doctors will only advise you to adopt a child. I didn't bring any woman to this Earth without a child. If you choose not to give birth to children, no problem, but don't use your own to destroy others.

I want you to have peace wherever you live. I Am the One who created Black, White, Asian, and every race on this Earth. You should treat everybody equally. All of you should solve the problem that made Me scatter you. I hate idolatry! I hate witchcraft! If you promote witchcraft in your country, you must know you're in trouble. Nothing good will happen to you. If you encourage witchcraft, I hate it. Anyone who has the spirit to do evil has the spirit of witchcraft. Whatever I don't ask you to do, if you do it, you know the consequence. All of you should go back and look into My word and why I destroyed people in the time of old. In any country where witchcraft is being practised, no matter how you pray, you have your judgement. I Am the Almighty God.

The Earth started in Me and will also end in Me. I Am the One who has the power to destroy this Earth. You, as scientists, can study as much as you can; you will die and leave, but I remain forever! I Am the Solution to every problem. I Am the Answer to every question. The Spirits of all the people who died have no rest because you cannot destroy the Spirit. Their blood cries every day. If you kill somebody purposely and think you will receive the reward at the end of the day, no; you will receive the punishment wherever you go. Nobody will crown you for killing anybody. There is no excuse. If you're a doctor and you carelessly kill somebody, you will receive the punishment because They will judge you wherever you go. That's why if I didn't create you to be a doctor, don't force yourself to be one. I created you as an individual and gave you your profession. Whatever profession you have, you must be very careful, especially when dealing with human beings, because the Spirit of human beings attaches to Me. I Am the Almighty God. All of you should respect My handwork.

Any nation that destroys somebody because of what you believe, I will judge that nation. I will destroy that nation! How do you feel in your body when you're doing evil? Is it good for you? It's not good for you, but you're doing it. Yesterday, a house fell and destroyed people; today, the ground opened and killed people. The spirits are angry! Can you appease the spirits? How can you appease spirits? Remove your hands from evil! That's the only way the spirits will return to their origin. You cannot go to the sea and invite the spirit of evil. Somebody started that evil, and everybody followed suit. Nobody can eradicate it, and you will not see peace. Trouble will be upon you until the end. Satan entered somebody to go to the sea and call the marine spirit. They now begin to serve that spirit throughout their generation. It's not My will! If you serve that spirit, you will also receive the punishment. However, for those who choose to serve Me and those who recognise Me as their Father, I will be with them to the end. I Am a Holy Father. This message is for the whole world.

Whatever you know how to do, you should continue with it. If you think I will reward you whenever you kill somebody, no, you're going to everlasting torment. After you leave this Earth, your children will also face the consequences. Whenever you come back again through your children's generation, you will also eat the food you prepared on the ground. If somebody tells you that you're the one who brought suffering upon your generation, you will ask, 'How come?'. When you came to this Earth for the first time, you did evil and died. You cannot come back through another generation. You must come back through the same generation and suffer the evil you did because you didn't give your life to Jesus Christ. If you give your life to Jesus Christ, you will go to Heaven whenever you die, only if you pass. But if you fail, you will go to Hellfire. If you go to Hellfire, the children you leave behind will also suffer the consequences here on Earth. That's why you see a generation of sickness everywhere. All those sicknesses are spirits. I, the Almighty God, need peace. If you have a spare cloth, you should give it to someone who has none. Nobody should fight for Me!

If I want to destroy the whole Earth today, I will destroy it. If you're fighting for Me, you're not doing My will. Satan is the one using you. You're not fighting for Me. I Am the Almighty God. You cannot fight for Me. If some people are fighting, go there and settle them. You shouldn't resolve disputes with guns and bombs! All nations supporting people who do evil should go and reconcile. Those who were fighting, instead of resolving their conflicts, you went there with guns and bombs. That is not My will. It doesn't matter whether you're from that country or not. If they're fighting and you go there and resolve it amicably, I, the Almighty God, will bless you. That's what I want. As you supported them to kill each other, you're in trouble. Those who kill by the sword will also die by the sword. I hate evil! All of you should make peace. However, if you fail to do this one, it will be very tough. You cut many lives short everywhere. What's the difference between you and those who died? You're eating and happy. Do you think you will have peace? Somebody woke up in the morning cooking for her children; she just heard the sound of a bomb behind her. Many people died, and you're still bragging. I, the Almighty Father Myself, will punish you.

Whether you serve cow or fish, whatever you serve, I Am above everybody. I will punish you. Satan is the one using you. That's why whenever they put you in prison, you will regret it before you come out. But you've done what you wanted to do. As you entered prison, the spirit left you. Immediately you come out of prison, the spirit will say,

'My home is there, let me go back'. That's why somebody should speak My word to them while they're in prison. Tell those who don't believe in Jesus Christ that I hate evil. Whatever they believe, they should send their people to speak to them.

You can only do without mentioning the name of Jesus Christ because you're not a Christian, but you cannot do without mentioning My name. I Am the Almighty God. That Law is powerful. You can only do without mentioning the name of Jesus Christ because the Ordinance of Jesus Christ isn't for everybody. There is a reason for it! But Almighty God is everywhere. I killed My Son Jesus Christ because of certain people. That was why He came. No matter how much you claim to be a Christian doing evil, you're a Christian for yourself. You're not doing My will. I Am the Almighty God. Anywhere you find yourself on this Earth, love those who are there. You shouldn't fight for Me. You shouldn't do evil. If anybody does evil, leave that person for Me. If you fight for Me, evil judgement is upon you.

Whatever race, whichever country you come from, I love you. You shouldn't do evil. The souls of many people are crying. I Am a Spirit and also a Human Being. Whenever you speak, I will stand beside you and use any word you say against you. You think nobody is there whenever you're speaking. You picked up your phone in America to connect to somebody in another country to do evil and dropped the phone. When evil was befalling them in that country, you kept quiet. You caused war, and you kept quiet. If two people are fighting, you're the next person to resolve their conflict.

Whenever there is a fight in any country, they should send people there to meet with the president or prime minister. Let the people speak. Hear what they have to say. If I could not care for you, I wouldn't have created the food before I created you. There is food for you to eat. What can bring money? Through the food I gave you. You will have money if you sell it. You will sell your gold and oil, and then money will come. Why did I give them to you? So you can repair the whole nation. You will care for yourself and your household if you sell some things. You will care for the entire city if you sell some things. You will care for the whole nation if you sell some things. That's why I make somebody the head, to be in charge of everything in that country. He will provide whatever they don't have so that everybody in that country can enjoy and have peace. However, you turned everything into your personal property. Are you the one who created it? My hand will be against you! My son, tell them My hand will be against them! I didn't create you and put you in that country alone. As you're a citizen of that country, so is another person. This word I Am speaking is life.

Let Me ask you one question. The house you live in, are you the one that built it? You have the money but cannot build the house by yourself. You must give the money to somebody to build the house for you. I chose somebody to be a leader: to control gold, oil, and everything there. Without somebody in charge so that the money can come, the house cannot stand, and the people cannot enjoy themselves. Why did you turn the money into your personal property? My hand will be against all the nations that do this. If all of them strive and do My will, they will see that many sicknesses they hear their names will disappear. Nobody will hear anything about them anymore. The demons they serve are happy, and they destroy their lives every day. If you think the sickness will end in your family whenever your sick mother dies, no; it will continue in the lives of the children. Why? Because the spirit refuses to leave.

Anytime I ask the spirits why they're in your life, they will say you invited them. You, diabetes, what are you doing there? The spirit will answer, 'Somebody brought me'. How did they bring him? Somebody did evil. Ordinary diabetes is a spirit. Return diabetes to where he comes from so that your children can live in peace. Let Me ask all of you questions. Can doctors cure every sickness? Every day, you, doctors, give patients the day of their death. Since you know how to give dates, why can't you cure the sickness because you say you're a doctor? Why do you say the sickness is beyond cure? The earlier you know you've wronged Me, the better for you! I Am the Almighty God.

I give everybody the freedom to move around. In the time of old, I gave the Israelites a city of refuge. If anybody runs to your country, sit him down. Ask him questions. Look at the situation that surrounds him. Don't judge him by flesh. That's why you shouldn't give yourself to Satan in the first place. If you give yourself to Satan, he will use you to destroy somebody, and you'll run elsewhere to hide. If the person runs to you, don't send him back. Let him know what he has done is wrong. If need be, give him punishment. Keep him and give him restricted freedom so you can monitor him. If you allow him to return to his country, there will be a problem. Make sure you get the truth out of him. The truth will determine whether you'll keep him or send him back. Let him know that your country is a country of truth. If you cannot keep him, lead him back to go and appease those he wronged. You should take him along if his countrymen say they will not accept him. If you see that what he did deserves punishment, punish and keep him. That's why all of you must go back to My word. I Am not a wicked Father. That's why I want this message to go to every part of the world so that nobody will say he doesn't hear. You should play or read this message to your children. You should teach your children the way of the Father. Nobody will escape God. I Am the One that created all of you. You shouldn't do evil. You shouldn't destroy yourselves.

If you belong to any religion and you're doing evil, you're not serving Me. I Am not the One you're serving. Any religion that leads you to do evil is not from Me. Satan is the one using you. You say Christians shouldn't be in your country. Who created that country? You say certain people shouldn't be there. These people are praying to Me. I can bless you through their prayers. If they do My will, they take neither your wives nor your money; they take nothing from you, then you have no mouth to speak. However, if they're doing evil, you have the right to punish them. I will allow you to punish them! If they're not doing any evil in the name of God, let them know anything you want to do so that all of you can support each other. That's what I want. Let them know what I, the Almighty God, require from them. If somebody refuses to eat your food, that doesn't mean you cannot play together. That shouldn't bring hatred. You shouldn't use your own to disturb another person. You will be rewarded for whatever you do, whether good or evil. Everybody lives on this Earth together. It's like fishes in the ocean; each swims facing the same direction without hurting the other. All of them are fish, but they have different colours. Both tilapia and catfish swim together. This is My message to the whole world. I Am the Almighty God.

If you fail to teach your child at home, he will become a criminal in the community. He will neither give you nor the community peace. He is no longer operating in your family alone but in the community as a whole. The punishment will be upon your generation because you fail to teach that child the way of the Father. I, the Almighty God, Am the One that connected the whole world together. There are spirits behind everything you do. My Spirit is inside you. You no longer operate with My Spirit if you defile your body. Satan is the one operating inside you. As he operates inside you, he will use you to destroy others. All of you should learn how to forgive.

If a man committed any crime and died, the only thing you can do is to tell those who remain alive not to do what he did. Now you say there is no God, and you forsake the Law that I gave to you; how can you deal with all these things? Until you train a child on what he should and shouldn't do, that's the only way he can escape the enemy's trap. However, you said they shouldn't train a child the way of the Father. How can he know what he shouldn't do because all of you fail to train your children in the way of the Father? Respect your father and your mother so that you can last on this Earth. But you fail to teach your child.

Any blessing I gave you, if you defile yourself, you also defile the blessing. How can you defile yourself? I, the Almighty God, created you for a purpose, and I've already put everything inside you. The children I put inside you, there is a way you will behave that the children cannot come anymore. It's like a flower that you planted. As it's growing, you cut off the top. What do you think will happen to that flower? That's how the body of a human being is. For the flower to grow and bring out her beauty, you must care for her properly. That's why every parent must train their children to take care of their body so they can become what I want them to be. All the children I put inside you are wonderful: Pastors, presidents, doctors, lawyers, engineers; they're all inside you. However, if you fail to teach them the way of the Father, you destroy them. The children should be taught every law involving arresting and jailing people so they understand it early. If somebody steals, you will lock him up in prison. Will he become what I want him to be? Never! But if you had taught him not to steal, he would become what I want him to be. If you do some things, nobody will lock you up in prison, but Satan will lock you up in his prison. This is the worst one. You can never become what I created you to be because you fail to take care of yourself. I Am the Almighty God.

As a doctor, if anybody comes to you that she wants to change her body, let her know you're a doctor to repair, not to destroy. Let her know! I didn't create you to be a doctor and destroy My handwork! If you listen to her and help her to destroy My handwork in her body, you cause problems for yourself and your generation. I need peace and happiness on this Earth. Whatever evil you do, there are spirits behind it. You cannot see them! If you open the door for them, they'll continue to operate in your life and the life of your generation until the end. As they're operating, they'll continue to give you evil. I Am the only Solution. The earlier all of you turn back from evil, the better. You should take care of yourself so that the spirits you cannot see that destroy you because of the sin you committed can disappear from your life and your generation.

Whatever I didn't give you, if you go and acquire it in your own way, Satan will punish you for it. Why do people die? Can anybody deal with the spirit of death? Let somebody answer My question! Can anybody eradicate the spirit of death? If you cannot eliminate the spirit of death, any word I give My servant to give you, whoever does it will see the consequence of it. I Am the only One who can eradicate the spirit of death. If the doctor tells you that you're going to die, if I see your heart, I will tell you that you will not die. I will adjourn the spirit of death. I will ask him to give you another life again. If you cling your heart to Me and begin to confess all your sins, you will not die.

No doctor can create human beings because you're a Spirit. Your Spirit never dies. I have opened My children's eyes to see the mystery of what I created. I only opened your eyes to see and study them, but you don't have power over them. You can only look and leave; you have no power over them. Whatever you do that you're proud of, I only give you a chance to do it. Give the glory back to Me so that all of you can have peace on this Earth. If you come to this Earth and depart, whenever you return, you will also meet the generation you leave behind in a good way if you do it well. You will not know you've come to this generation before. I also brought back those who went to Heaven to come and repair this Earth again. However, they couldn't repair it because of your evil, as you continue to do evil everywhere. You wouldn't listen to any word they would speak! You would use your own to destroy theirs and couldn't return to Heaven anymore because of you.

Somebody has to die every day. But why should it be you? Why should somebody die through you? Why should you kill somebody? I didn't create anybody to die prematurely, and I didn't create anybody to live on this Earth forever. Why should you die prematurely? Why won't you live the life I proposed for you to live? Search yourself! I will judge everybody, no matter what planet you go to. Many people have experienced and are experiencing what they shouldn't experience in every part of the world because of evil. The creatures I created to live spiritually want to force themselves to live physically. They want to dominate your life. Why? Because you've lost your glory! I created many spirits that are not meant to live among you. However, because of your evil, you begin to hear their voices. They're telling you 'we are here'. You have lost your glory because you committed sin. You have done what you shouldn't have done. I Am the Almighty God.

I never hide Myself from My children. Right from the beginning, if you do what I hate, you cause My wrath to fall upon you. Right from the beginning, I never hide Myself from My children. I revealed Myself to them that I Am the Almighty God. I Am the Maker of everything. I brought them out of My body. I told them sin is an abomination to Me. If you're doing My will, good things will begin to happen to you. If you're not doing My will, you're calling My wrath to fall upon you. As you're not doing My will, you're also calling another spirit to come and rule you. That's why you see evil falling everywhere.

You will open your mouth to call Me whenever evil befalls you. There's nothing I can do because you called what shouldn't live in your life to come and live in your life. That's why I Am speaking. That's why I Am using My Prophet and Prophetess. That's why I Am troubling the Spirit of My children every day to warn you to stay clear from evil. There shall be no peace for them. They're calling My wrath to fall upon them. I Am the One that created the evil you're doing. But I didn't create you to do evil. That's why I made you know it right from the beginning. Whether you give your life to My Son Jesus Christ or not, you can be whatever you want and serve whatever you wish. However, if you're doing what I said you shouldn't do, you cause My wrath to fall upon you.

I revealed Myself to everybody, even non-Christians that I Am the Almighty God. If you're doing evil, causing My children to die, I will come to you and reveal Myself to you. There is a way I will reveal Myself to you because you're doing Me evil. If you're doing My children evil, you're doing Me evil because all My children connect to Me. Evil will befall all the nations that practice evil. Every nation that practices evil should know that evil is an abomination to Me. I Am telling you again that all of you who locked My servants in prison should release them now so there can be good food in the land again. You should release all My servants who proclaimed My word from prison. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the Great I Am That I Am. I Am the Ancient of Days. You're a human being, and you're doing wickedness. I Am the One that owns you.

As you do your wickedness, people clap hands for you. After you die, your generation will suffer for it. Whatever wickedness you do to My children, your generation will never see peace, and you will also suffer wherever you go. After you might have died, people know you're dead but don't know what you're going through. I Am the Owner of any planet you go to. You have nothing to say. I Am the One who connected the whole Earth together. I Am the Almighty God. In the beginning, I revealed Myself to the first man and woman I created that I Am their God, their Creator. I didn't hide Myself from anyone right from the beginning. I revealed Myself to everybody. I now come again through My son, and anyone who hears his voice should know that he's not the one speaking. Evil will befall every nation that deviates from My word. They shouldn't call upon Me when the evil befalls them. I Am the Owner of every country.

Anybody can serve whatever they want to serve. Whoever chooses to serve fish should go ahead and serve fish. Whoever decides to serve cow should go ahead and serve cow. Whoever chooses to serve Me should go ahead and serve Me. Whoever serves Me serves Jesus Christ. Whoever serves Almighty God serves Jesus Christ. Anyone who serves Almighty God and does the will of Almighty God also does the will of Heaven. Whatever you serve, continue to serve it. Mind you, whatever I say you shouldn't do, and you do it, you call My wrath to fall upon you. I Am the Almighty God.

All My children are crying every day. When I look down and see the spirits eating them, I would ask the spirits what they're doing there. They will say My children are the ones who invited them. All of you that serve water spirits (marine spirits), the spirits are the ones eating you. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the One that created everything. I created the spirits of water to live inside the water. I didn't create them for you to serve them. As they're there, they also have their food. I Am the Almighty God. I know how I provide their food. If you go there to serve them, they will use you as their food.

All the nations that practice evil, serving mermaids, another god that is not Me, there shall be no blessing for them because they ignore My word. It is not by force. If you choose to serve Me, My blessing will be upon you. Whatever you serve, don't do evil. However, if you serve what you shouldn't serve, they will force you to do evil. If you serve an idol, from there comes anger, hatred, bitterness, envy, and jealousy. I, who said you shouldn't serve them, know they're demons. They are evil. They're the opposite of Almighty God. This is the word of Almighty God to the whole world.

This Earth is moving. I Am the Earth. I Am the Almighty God. I allow those who travel to the Moon to study My handwork. I Am the One who gave them the knowledge to study. Nobody can create anything but Me. I Am the One that created it, and I Am the One that will destroy it. I Am a loving Father, and I never hate anybody. Every tribe comes from Me. All of you should live in peace and harmony. You shouldn't use your religion to disturb anybody. If you choose to be a Christian, be a Christian. You can choose to sing and dance in your house. If you decide to be a Muslim, all of you are from Me. Whichever one you do, I Am the One that weighs everything. If you don't do My will, you invite demons to rule you, to destroy you. You shouldn't use religion to disturb anybody.

My children are locked in prison throughout the whole world. You should release them. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the One speaking. You should release all of them. My son, tell them they're looking for My wrath! All the nations that locked up all My children, you should release them. All My children are crying to Me in the cell. You should open the door for them and let them come out. Tell them My son! The kind of heart you have isn't My heart. I created you from My body. I Am a Good Father. I Am a Loving Father. I never do evil. The heart you have isn't My heart. You're not doing My will. My children are crying in the cell. You should open the door and let them come out. I Am the Almighty God. You should release all My servants you locked up in prison. You're looking for My wrath. Any nation that practices evil, evil will begin to befall you. If you're doing good, I will bless you. If I choose you as My own, you cannot leave or run away from Me. If I called any nation and she chooses to do evil, evil will befall her. No matter how you pray, I will fold My hands looking at you. Whatever law you want to introduce other than My Law, you cause My wrath to fall upon you. If My wrath begins to fall, you shouldn't cry to Me. I Am the Almighty God.

All of you who go far away from Me and now introduce another law that differs from My Law should know that evil is an abomination to Me. I created male; I created female. I wouldn't have created females if I had wanted males to live alone. Whatever I didn't do, anybody that does it will cause My wrath to fall upon him. As you do it, you cause trouble to the whole world. Evil will begin to befall any nation that practices this. You will work and will not see food to eat. Any nation that practices this will never see good.

I destroyed the whole Earth before. I created human beings on this Earth before I created Adam. I wiped them away because they were foolish. They were not as wise as I wanted. I left the Earth as it was but wiped every human being away from it. Ask some of My children who're educated in this area, and they'll know there were people on this Earth before. I Am the One. They were not animals. Some of you said they were apes. No! They were not apes; they were human beings. They weren't as wise as I wanted them to be. I wiped them away and created Adam and Eve. This time around, I now put Myself into your body. That's why you can do everything you do. When I created them, I put a little of My Spirit inside them to differentiate them from animals. But I didn't see what I expected from them. I now wiped them away and created all of you. That's why every experiment you perform is from Me. I Am the One who showed you. Whatever you do that isn't good isn't from Me.

I created doctors to repair, not to destroy. If you're destroying what's good, you're not a doctor. My wrath will fall upon you. A doctor's work is to repair; a lawyer's work is to repair. If you're a president, you're there to hear the cry of the whole nation. I put gold, oil, and hidden treasures in each country. Why? So that all of you can feed from it and repair the country. I Am not a wicked Father. Every evil you're doing is coming back to haunt you. My children you killed are crying to Me every day. Their souls don't rest. If Satan is using you to kill, he will also destroy you. After you die, you will face the consequences of your actions anywhere you go. I Am the One that owns Satan. I Am the Alpha and the Omega. I Am the Beginning and the Ending. I Am the Authority. I Am the Great I Am That I Am.

Whenever evil is coming, I have the power to stop it. If I see that the evil you did is too much, I will leave that country. I saw everything that happened to every country. Why didn't I rescue you? Because you didn't choose Me as your Father! You chose the fishes in the water and the animals in the forest, but I Am the One who created all these things. You should go into My word. I Am the One who gave My children the revelation to write those words. It is My word. I created everything for you to eat before I created you. Why should you serve animals? Why should you serve fish? Why should you bow down to fish? I didn't create all those things for you to bow down to them, to worship them. Spirits are behind everything. I Am the Almighty God.

The Redeemed Christian Church of God was in Heaven. I brought it down from Heaven to this Earth. I didn't choose any of My children to be a Pastor. I purposely ordained them in Heaven before I sent them to this Earth. You should go to the story of the Redeemed Christian Church of God. I created My son Josiah Akindayomi to establish the church. Satan didn't allow him to obey Me in time, but I brought him out with an iron hand. I don't choose people anyhow. If I choose you as My ordained one, you're not just an ordinary person. Satan is always on the necks of these kinds of people. Nevertheless, I Am a Merciful Father. Anyone that committed sin, if I forgive you to do My will, nobody will dig out your sin. I ask all of you to forgive everyone who has wronged you. Let all the nations forgive themselves. Let all of you live in harmony. You're looking for My wrath if you don't live in harmony. I have done it before. I Am the Almighty God.

If I want to destroy this Earth in a twinkling of an eye, I will do it. I don't need to come down. If I shake My body in Heaven, the whole Earth will shake together. My son, tell them they're looking for My wrath. I Am happy whenever My children eat well and praise Me. I see every evil that happens in any nation. You don't allow Me to fight for you because the demons say you're the ones that invited them. My son, that's why you're going to tell all of them again that it's not by force to serve God. If you choose to serve demons, serve them. Whatever you serve, the wrath will be upon you, your family and your nation. Sin is an abomination to Me. Whatever I don't want, nobody should serve it. That was why I revealed Myself right from the beginning. I used many nations as examples on this Earth. The nations still exist on this Earth. I loved them! But what happened? They denied Me. If you deny your Father, what happens to you? Nevertheless, I Am a merciful Father. If you return to Me, I Am ready to accept you as My children. I Am the Almighty God.

My Son Jesus Christ is tormenting people's Spirit, revealing to them so that you people will know there is Heaven, Hellfire, and Dark-Planet. But you people deny any message that comes from them. Any message that comes from anybody about Heaven and Hellfire is valid. Why are they telling you? So you will know how to live your life. It's not by force for you to come to Heaven. However, if you die and go to Hellfire, as you're burning in the fire, the demons will continue to control the family you left behind. That's why it's very painful to Me. It would have been good if you only did your evil and go, but as you go, your family will continue to suffer the consequences of your evil.

If a man built houses, died and left children behind, wouldn't the children inherit the houses? Will another person come and inherit the houses? Houses are good things. If it's something bad, they will also inherit it! The demons will also chase your children. You're calling the name of Abraham today. I was the One who chose Abraham. You're singing, 'Abraham's blessings are mine'. When I chose Abraham and promised him, didn't it come to pass? I Am the Almighty God. All of you shouldn't take My word for granted. If you're a Christian, you should go back to the basics. Whatever religion you belong to, you should go back to the basics. If you're a Muslim, you should go back to the basics. Islam comes from Me. I was the One that revealed Myself to My son Mohammed! You're not from Me if you do evil. Any religion you belong to, you're not from Me if you're doing evil. I want all My children to live together in peace and harmony.

I chose some nations to be peacemakers - Britain and America, but they disappointed Me. Africa is the apple of My eye. No matter how you're the apple of My eye, I will reject you if you don't do My will. Whoever loves Me should run away from everything I hate. Otherwise, you're looking for My wrath. I Am the Almighty God. I revealed Myself to many of My Pastors. I also revealed Myself to many non-Christians, but they don't know how to publish it. Evil is an abomination to Me. I Am the Almighty God. If you do good, you will see good; if you do evil, you will also see evil.

You cause problems for your children by substituting My Law for yours. I Am the same Father. The same God of Old is the same God of New. I have done it before. Whatever Ordinance I give you, if you do it in your own way, you cause My wrath to fall upon you and your children. I don't need to speak because the demons will come to you immediately if you do evil. When Adam and Eve ate the fruit, they saw the reaction immediately because it was evil. If I warn you about anything and you do it, evil will come to you automatically. All the nations that serve cows and animals will eat and never be satisfied. I didn't ask them to serve all those things. If you don't want to belong to any religion, be neutral. Always look to Heaven and say, Father, I thank You because the Earth began in Me and will also end in Me. I Am the Almighty God.

I brought The Redeemed Christian Church of God down from Heaven because I want to take My children back to Heaven from there. I chose many of My children to establish different churches. I gave them Ordinances to follow, but they failed Me. They went on their own way. You're looking for My wrath if I give you any Law and you deviate from it. I Am a Holy Father. If you want to serve Me, serve Me in truth and holiness. I Am the Almighty God. This Earth is Mine. You come to enjoy what you didn't labour for. I Am the Owner of this Earth. You shouldn't fight for what you don't know its origin. Yours is just to come, eat and leave. Don't eat by quarrelling with others. I gave all of you treasures! You, the leaders, shouldn't turn every treasure I put in different countries into your personal property. I can dry up every treasure I put in your country. I can dry wherever the oil is coming from. I can dry up wherever gold is coming from. If all of you don't use it well, I will dry it up. I will dry it up, and you'll not see it anymore because you use it to do evil. I Am the Almighty God. Whatever treasure I put in any country, bring it out. It belongs to everybody in that country. It doesn't belong to one person or one family. It belongs to everybody from that nation, and other nations should also benefit from it. I Am the One who did it. Sin is an abomination to Me.

If you divorce your wife without any reason, the spirit of divorce is inside you. Whenever your children are married, they will do the same thing because you have allowed that spirit to enter your generation. The husband may hate his wife without any reason. It is a spirit of divorce. If I, the Almighty God, had wanted only man to live, I wouldn't have created woman, and if I had wanted only woman to live, I wouldn't have created man. Whatever I neither do nor create, and you go ahead and do it, you cause My wrath to fall upon you and your generation. You cannot run away from My wrath. I created man and woman to be together. I also brought the woman out of the man I created. I neither brought man out of man nor woman out of woman. Whenever the man and woman meet together, either man or woman will come out. I only created these two people.

On this Earth, as all of you substituted My Law with yours, can you wait when My wrath comes? Those who did it before faced the consequences. Whatever law you bring doesn't concern Me. However, for all of you who did it, whenever you're crying, don't cry to Me because I will not listen to your voice. As My son Radiant is reading this message to all of you, it may be like nonsense. You're committing many sins, but I only use these two as examples. I brought some of My children to judge cases. Many judges, lawyers and police officers turn everything around by hiding the truth. My innocent children are crying in prison. You use your power to send innocent souls to jail. You knew somebody did evil; you still set him free and jailed an innocent soul. You're saying evil should spread on this Earth. I speak this word to kings and queens, presidents and prime ministers, senators and MPs, governors and mayors; everyone I put in leadership positions should consider this matter. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the Great I Am That I Am. Jehovah is My name.

Many innocent children are in jail for what they didn't do. They're shedding tears because they lied against them. You failed to connect your Spirit to My Spirit so you can judge right. Flesh alone cannot rule this Earth. If you're a lawyer and you put your heart into My heart, if a case is hard, I will reveal the truth to you whenever you lie down on your bed. I will open your eyes to know who committed the crime. That's why you need Me in your life. As a doctor, you cannot treat some patients because of the spirits living inside them. You cannot use flesh to heal them. As a doctor, I will enter you and heal them.

You told My children not to mention My name! Can you heal My children? I created you as spirit and flesh. If you say My children shouldn't call My name, can you heal them? You should go back and ask what I did before. I brought down the kings who said they were strong. I Am the Owner of this Earth. All of you, no matter how many you are, you're connected to Me. As I brought you to live on this Earth, I put My Body into your body. That's why nobody can create human beings. The breath you breathe is your life. Whenever a man releases his seed into a woman, millions of children come out because I Am a Merciful and Good Father. I knew My children would commit sin one day; that was why I did it that way that no matter what happens, you can still give birth to children. If you look at the seed the man releases, it's like milk, but millions of children are there. You cannot create human beings. After a man dies, judgement takes place. I Am the Almighty God. Heaven is My throne. Evil is an abomination to Me. Nobody created Me. I Am the Self-Existing Father. I never change; I remain the same. Truth is My food, but evil is an abomination to Me.

Those who served Me well, I crowned them. Even if you didn't give your life to Jesus Christ and serve Me well, whenever you die, I will take you to where I will crown you, and I will feed the generation you left behind. I will fight for them wherever they go. I have done it before. You should go back and search the history of what I have done before. I gave My children different Ordinances, but they turned away from Me in just a little time. I gave Ordinances to all the various churches to follow. If you turn away from Me, My Spirit is not with you anymore. Whenever an iron is bent, it will be hard to straighten it. If you exercise patience enough, you can straighten it. But you'll manage whatever you see if you fail to exercise patience.

I Am the Almighty God. I started this journey with a man like you. I called people out of idolatry. Why should you be inside idolatry and say I should bless you? Why should you serve your idol and say you're coming to Heaven? Why should you serve idol and think your children will have peace? Many of you will oppose this message that the Father isn't the one speaking. However, whenever I come, the demon that enters your heart and makes you think I Am not the One speaking will run away from you, and I will kill you. It happened before in the time of old. But the time I came with My wrath, the demons ran away. I Am the Owner of this Earth and those who live in it.

If Satan holds your heart, he will run away from you whenever I come. If you're doing My will, I will not forsake you when evil comes. I will not disgrace you. But Satan will leave you as an orphan. If you're doing My will, don't be afraid. Any nation that fights you is in trouble. But you cause My wrath to fall upon you if you don't do My will. If I don't warn you and evil befalls you, you will ask, 'Father, why are we serving you and evil befalls us?'. That's why I speak every day. The nations I destroyed before on this Earth, are you better than they? I can destroy anyone who goes away from Me and doesn't do My will in various ways. I Am the Almighty God. I repeat again, if you think this matter is a lie, lie on your bed and purge yourself, and I will reveal Myself to you. The evil you do covers My Spirit in you. The noble people I created are in prison; they're drug addicts, and they're criminals because the leaders failed to train them in My way. If you claim you don't have a Father, automatically, you have a demon. Satan will be the one ruling you. Now that Satan is ruling you, why are you crying to Me?

All of you should train your children how to take care of themselves. In the beginning, they knew I was the One who created them, but they were naked because they didn't commit sin. When they committed sin, they covered themselves. Why didn't I allow them to remain naked anymore after they committed sin? Because they now knew good and evil! The spirit will enter anyone naked. Even though you don't want to sleep with anybody before, you will be hungry because the spirit has already entered you. That's why, as a woman, you must cover yourself. It doesn't mean anything to you, but it makes another person fall. That spirit can make your brother sleep with you because it's a spirit. There are spirits behind sex. If a mother behaves in the presence of her son in a certain way, they will commit abominable acts if care is not taken.

When Adam and Eve ate that fruit, the spirit entered them immediately. I covered their nakedness and drove them away. As a woman, there is no problem if you uncover your body, but you make somebody commit sin. This also applies to father and daughter at home. A daughter can open her body in a certain way, and her father's body will move towards her. It is an abomination! Right from the beginning, it's an abomination! That's why, as a woman, you must take care of yourself so that the glory I gave to your children can come to pass. If anyone violates My word, you cannot become what I want you to be. The law of flesh cannot stop it.

No matter how you lock up My children in the cell, that will not be the end. If you arrest a drug addict and put him in jail for 20 years, he will continue again whenever he comes out because the spirit is inside him. I Am the only One who can remove that spirit. That's why the earlier you teach that child the way he should go so he can become what I want him to be on this Earth, the better for you. This Law I Am giving to all of you is not for Christians alone but for everybody. The Law is for the whole world.

In the beginning, I called neither Christians nor Muslims. However, because of sin, I began to give Law to bring My children back to Me. This Law is for everybody on this Earth. But if you say no and want to go your own way, you will manage whatever you see. I will not tell you to follow any religion. Any religion that practices holiness is Mine. In fact, the religion I approve of is holiness! I will crown you if you don't even attend any church, but you're holy.

Any religion on this Earth that's holy belongs to Me. I will not tell you to follow any religion. However, if you sit down and go into My word, you will know the religion I choose for you to follow. I Am a Holy Father. When I called Abraham, I didn't call him because of religion. I called him because of holiness, to walk before Me and be blameless. I entered a covenant of holiness with him. As I began training him, he handed it over to his generation. Apart from Abraham, I also gave Ordinances to other people. Everything is about holiness. Any nation that serves another thing that is not Me, the Almighty God, eating people and sucking blood, that is not My religion. In the whole Earth, I don't crown any religion. The best religion is holiness. The best religion is holiness. I have given some people the Ordinance before, and if you want to follow holiness, you know what to do. Anyone you know how to do, I will reward you. I Am the Almighty God.

Those among you who claim you're serving Me should cleanse yourself very well. To wash away the spirit of idolatry isn't easy because it goes a long way. If all of you want Me to cleanse you by Myself, many things will happen. That's why you must work upon yourself now. You know how far you've gone. You're disturbing Me with your noise every day. Many things are attached to your spirit; some of them scorpions, snakes, tigers, and many unseen spirits live inside your body. Many of you cry for children; after you're tired, you return to your idol. If I say I should bless you with a child, he will also follow the lineage of idolatry. Do you think you're coming to Heaven whenever you die? As you're praying inside the church, your heart is in idolatry. If anything happens, you will send money to your mother to help you seek a solution. But you're serving God. You're not serving Me; you're serving yourself. I cannot give you what you desire because no sorrow attaches to My blessing. My blessing brings peace, success, and favour. You're a wicked man and a wicked woman.

Do you know why many people are swept away in different nations? I know the reason! You should go and work upon yourself. Whatever you know how to do, I will not tell you to stop. Anything I say you shouldn't do, My wrath will fall upon you and your generation if you do it. I Am the Owner of everybody. The idol you serve knows Me as the Almighty God. If you're serving idols or fish, they know I Am the Almighty God. Imagine you, who I created from My body. Will My wrath fall upon you or not? It will fall upon you! I Am a Human Being like you. I Am also a Spirit. I Am a loving Father. I love everything I created. However, there is a limit when it comes to animals because I Am a Holy Father.

I created some things for you to play with and be happy. It shouldn't go beyond that. You can only have contact with human beings one-on-one. You shouldn't have close contact with whatever differs from human beings. Even among human beings as well, there is a category. You're White, and she is Black; you're compatible to marry each other. That's why I created he and she. Out of he and she, some are incompatible with marrying each other. That's why you must listen to the Spirit I put inside you before making a choice. As you look unto Me, I will connect both of you together. Immediately you go away from Me, the wrong one will come to you. Everything you do afterwards, you're treading on the wrong ground. Nothing good will come your way.

At the end of the day, you'll say marriage is not good. You will even encourage others not to marry. If marriage is not good, why did I create it? Why did I create man and woman? If your father didn't marry, why are you on this Earth? If one person says he will not get married and another person says she will not get married, where will all the children you adopt come from? Will you see any child to adopt? Are you the one that gave birth to the children? You're telling Me I should go away with what I created, that you don't want Me. Go away with what you created; we can do it by ourselves. I will show all of you that I Am the Almighty God. I will do on this Earth what I haven't done before!

If all of you think it's a joking matter, you will see My wrath. I Am the Owner of the air. I give the air peace for your aircraft to fly. If I trouble the air, many innocent people will die. You're the one who killed them because you refused to teach them My way. You said there is no God. You're causing death, destroying innocent souls that don't know anything. If you say, there is no God, and you release your engine to the air to fly, how come? If there is no air, can your aircraft fly? If I seize the air, can your aircraft fly? All of you have pushed Me to the wall. If I turn back, it will be rough. I Am telling you to amend your ways because you said there is no Father. You welded pieces of metal and aluminium together and released them into the air to fly. If I seize the air, what will happen? Your aircraft will fall like a rock! I Am the Owner of the air. I Am the Breeze. I Am the Almighty God.

You push Me to the wall. I have several means to destroy all of you. If I withhold the air, you can breathe, but many things will not be able to move in the air. I Am the One that gave you the knowledge, but you said there is no God. I gave you a chance to do it. I told all of you that I created human beings on this Earth before. Whatever you do, I Am happy but don't do it in an evil way. If you don't connect your Spirit to My Spirit and begin to look unto Me, you cannot do anything. That's why you see many things destroyed because you say there is no God. Whatever you're doing, I Am there. But if you say there is no God, everything will go wrong. I hate everything you're doing. I Am a Holy Father. I Am the Almighty God.

Any sin you commit will not end on you alone but will go far throughout your generation. I gave those who did it in the time of old an Ordinance to sacrifice blood. What could have happened to them without giving them such an Ordinance? They had to sacrifice animals whenever they committed sin. Today, you don't sacrifice animals anymore. Where are the demons? You despise My Son who I killed because of this purpose. You're saying Jesus Christ was a human being. Satan uses this to take away your blessing. Jesus Christ wasn't a human being but a Spirit. I purposely brought Him for this reason. You're also a Spirit; that's why you cannot die. Whenever you sleep, you will wake up. The day you die, your Spirit will go elsewhere to live. The Ordinance of Jesus Christ is for Christians. It is not by force. You don't have to serve Jesus Christ; serve the Father. I Am the Father. Pursue holiness so I can take you to wherever I want whenever you die. However, those who say they're Christians should do the will of Jesus Christ. I Am the Almighty God.

Concerning Great Britain And America

All of you introduced your own law and turned My children away from Me. You should go back to the time of old and see those I dealt with. I spoke to My children one-on-one about how to do everything you enjoy today. I was the One who gave them the vision of what you enjoy today. Evil is an abomination to Me! No matter what, nobody will change the country. I Am the One that owns all of you. The earlier you turn back, the better for you. I Am speaking to Great Britain as a whole. I Am the One who owns the land. I Am the One who created it.

I looked around the whole Earth, and I saw sin everywhere. When I turned to you, you weren't perfect, but still better than others. I banished all the powerful demons away from the land and gave your forefathers an Ordinance to wipe off the rest by themselves. This was why they killed the witches during their time. Then, I chose you so that others could learn from you. With all the good you're doing and all your benefits system, I was the One who gave your forefathers the idea to do it. Those who served idols, the idols took their blessings away. That was why I allowed your forefathers to take Africans as slaves.

America, it's very shameful how much you've fallen! Britain disappointed Me; America is a shame. I Am ashamed of America! I created you alone as a lion and tiger. But what happened? You fall! You fall. I created Britain as a bear. A bear can play with you as big as he is. But if you look for his trouble, you will pay for it. If you see a bear, it's as if he can't do anything. But he will tear you into pieces if you look for his trouble. As you can see, he's like a child who can't do anything; he's very powerful. That is Britain. But what happened to you? You think you're everything. The earlier you understand your wrong, the better. Whatever I hate, whoever opens the door for people to do it will face My judgement. The whole country will face My wrath. I Am the Almighty God.

When it comes to the slave trade, I, the Almighty God, was the One who brought it. Africa is the apple of My eye, but what happened to them? I purposely brought them to you so you could change them so that they could forget their idols. That was why I said I Am ashamed of America because I brought My children to them but didn't take care of them. They hated My children and still hate them today. Are you the ones who own the Earth? I brought My children to you so you could take care of them because of their idols. If I take America away today, can you come back and begin to struggle for the Earth? Do you know where and how I created the Earth? It is our own; we're the ones that own America. If you're the ones that own America, which one is Mine because I was the One that created it? Where will you live if I say I Am the Owner? I want all of you to emulate Me. I Am the Owner of the whole Earth. Nobody will escape My wrath.

The earlier you change, the better for you. All the kings and all the presidents should put their heads together and repair whatever you've spoilt. If you die, you will come back again to this Earth and face the suffering you created on the ground. Those who go to the Dark-Planet are happy, but they will come back and face whatever they sow on the ground. This Earth is like a recycling centre. You can only have peace if you go to Heaven. There is first class, there is second class, there is third class. Anyone who does well, I will take him to the category he falls into, and it doesn't matter what religion you belong to. Any country that serves idols is an abomination to Me. Anyone who changed what I have created is an abomination to Me.

I created Britain to be a bear, a loving country. If you look for the trouble of a bear, he will tear you into pieces. I Am the One who will fight for him. But what happened? You have quickly turned back from Me. I love My children - Africans. As you are, so are they. You're special; they're special, too. You should treat them with dignity and respect. I don't hate anyone. I Am the Alpha, I Am the Omega, I Am the Beginning, I Am the Ending. No one will escape My wrath. I will judge you for whatever you do. Your punishment awaits you.

All the noble ones, all the kings and queens, should team together and work on this message. It is not compulsory. You may think My son Radiant is the one speaking to you. He is not the one; I Am the One. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the same God of Abraham and Moses. You should put this word down and mark it. My wrath is upon every nation that doesn't do My will. Can't you see there is no money anywhere? Why does it affect the whole world? Because all of you have wronged Me! I Am the One who took the money. It is My money. All of you should go back into My word and learn how I created this Earth. I gave you an unmerited favour.

Nobody has power over death, and nobody can adjourn death. If you serve Me in your house and your heart is clean, if you don't do any evil, I, the Almighty Father, will bless you. At the end of the day, They will take you to whatever category you belong to whenever you die. My wrath is upon all of you who locked My children in prison because they proclaimed My word. You should release all of them now. If you fail to release them, I Am coming to you. You should open the door for them and let them come out.

If you call yourself a Christian, run away from every evil. If you do evil, I, the Almighty Father, will give you to the enemy to destroy. Let your religion be a religion of peace. Let it repair people's lives. Whether you're a Muslim or a Christian, whatever religion you belong to, as long as it is not the religion I hate because I hate idolatry, I hate witchcraft; don't do evil. I hate evil! If you're doing evil, you're not for Me. I Am speaking to presidents; I Am speaking to prime ministers; I Am speaking to MPs; I Am speaking to senators; I Am speaking to governors; I Am speaking to all the leaders. All of you should hold a meeting now and repair this Earth immediately. If you fail to repair it, I Am coming. You can see the sign everywhere. What has not happened before has just begun to happen. I Am the Almighty God. All of you should put your heads together and repair this Earth now.

I give each generation what they should do. I give My children the knowledge to be doctors, lawyers, engineers, and many others to repair the lives of My children. I, the Almighty Father, Am a Spiritual Doctor. I do many healings in the lives of My children, which they know nothing about. I enter some doctors who serve Me to heal My children. If you plant a seed and it germinates, what happens to the growing seed if weed grows around it? It will not grow well or die. I Am the Owner of this Earth. Every nation that praises Me, their seed will germinate and grow well. Every human being on this Earth, whether those with dark hair or coil hair or brown hair or white hair, I Am the Owner of them all. Evil is befalling some people because evil is an abomination to Me. I hate it as they're serving demons. I held them in My hands before. I will leave them and allow the demons to attack them. Why? Because they're doing what I hate.

If you're injured in an accident, it happens because you committed sin. Why should you be injured in an accident? You're injured because you were drunk or on drugs or rough driving. But I Am a Merciful Father. I created a physical doctor to repair your body because of this reason. You're a doctor; somebody brought My body, which I created perfectly so you can change it. Both the carrier of that body and the doctor who changed that body are guilty. I Am the Almighty God.

I Am the Almighty God. No single word I speak will waste. If I want to do anything, I will tell you why I want to do it. In the time of old, many of them were foolish, and they weren't wise. Nowadays, all of you know why certain things happen. As My son Radiant is giving all of you this word, it will be there for generations until I roll the Earth away. If I wipe this generation away, it will also be there for the next generation of human beings to see that I have created human beings on this Earth before. I Am a talkative. If I didn't speak, how did My word - The Bible come into existence? I shook the souls of Prophets; I made them suffer. It's not easy for anybody I use. That's why you're in trouble if you fail to do what I tell you.

The souls of the people you sent to war cry every day. If you fight a good fight, I will go before you. I will help you fight, and nobody will defeat you. But you went and fought a wicked war. People were in trouble, fighting each other; instead of going there and separating them, you went and joined one party to fight because you thought you were everything. Some people went to Heaven without seeing death out of the same Earth I say I want to destroy. Why can't you emulate them? If you do any evil, you bring destruction upon your generation. The nations I cursed, are you better than they? You're doing the same thing that made Me lay a curse on them. Why won't I destroy you? If you can tell Me three reasons why I shouldn't destroy you, I will leave you alone. If I Am still the Almighty God, I will destroy you. If I Am not the same Almighty God who created you, if there is any other god apart from Me who can save you whenever I come to destroy you, continue to do whatever you're doing.

All My Laws that you changed, if you know there is any other god who can save you whenever I come, go on with whatever you're doing. If you know that you choose Me, the Almighty God who revealed Myself to your forefathers, the same God yesterday and forever, the Owner of this Earth, the God whose name is Jehovah, the Great I Am That I Am, the Ancient Of Days, if I Am the same Father you're serving, then you should quickly change your ways now as you hear My voice. However, if you say no, I give you the freedom to continue with whatever you're doing. Can you stand the battle? I Am the Owner of this Earth and everything in it. If you deny Me, I don't deny you. You're still My sons and daughters. But you're no longer My sons and daughters if you don't do My will.

If I punished people in the time of old, why won't I punish you? I used different nations as examples on this Earth. You should go to those nations and ask what I did with their forefathers. You cannot see Me. I Am the Mighty-Man-In-Battle. If I tell you what I want to do, I will do it. You know what to do if you don't want My wrath to fall upon you. I will not tell you what to do. You know what you should do. All of you should ask yourselves: 'What are we doing that the Father doesn't like?' Put your heads together and think quickly. If you know I Am not the same Father, that you have another father elsewhere, continue to do whatever you're doing. I Am saying this so you won't say I take you unaware.

I appeared to Black and White because of the evil you're doing. My Son Jesus Christ is working earnestly, taking people to Hellfire, both Black and White, different races, even those who didn't give their lives to Jesus Christ, so they could know I Am the Almighty God and for them to know where they're going whenever they die. However, if they return and tell all of you, you will not believe it. You're giving foolish offerings, giving foolish aids to countries, but you're not doing My will. If you're doing what I hate, all the good you're doing is in vain because you say there is no Father. Are you better than your forefathers who put Me into their hearts? Today, you will look at the structure of your streets, all your drainage systems, water and electricity, undergrounds, and all sorts, and you think all are by your power. I was the One who showed them how to do everything. I love what's good. I love it if you're progressing and good, but I want you to do everything inside Me. Everything you enjoy today, I was the One that did it. But now you think you're a champion. I can destroy everything I brought for you to enjoy in the twinkling of an eye. That will be the worst. If I Am against you, then you're in trouble. I Am the Almighty God.

As for the law you introduced, you could have asked yourself why there is no money anywhere. If it had happened in one nation, you could have said they didn't know how to do business. Why is everywhere dry of money? I Am the Owner of money. I have not punished all of you. I Am only using what you're experiencing now to pull your ears. What is coming will be worse than this. However, if you change, I will release the money. You think you know more than Me and can do whatever you like to Me. No, you cannot do whatever you want because I Am the Owner of everything. You introduced the law that man and man or woman and woman should marry each other.

I knew some nations had been practising this for a while, but I kept quiet, waiting for Great Britain. I Am the Owner of the land. Why? I revealed Myself to your forefathers and built the nation through them. I held many of My children captive because they were serving idols. Many people sold their land and brought the money to live in Britain. Many people brought huge amounts of money from different parts of the world to spend here. Why? Because they didn't know Me! I wanted them to come here so they could be free from their idols through you. It's not that you were not doing evil, but I gave an Ordinance to your forefathers to follow to eradicate evil among you. I gave them an Ordinance to kill anyone who has the spirit of witchcraft. This spirit will never do you any good. Now that I brought My Son, Jesus Christ, you should open your mouth and confess to your Pastor. I Am not saying you should kill them anymore. However, if they fail to confess, they will turn every good to bad for you. They will never tell you what's good. Why Am I telling you this? If all of you fail to hold a meeting and repair the country, My wrath will fall upon you. I Am the Almighty God.

Many of the lawyers I chose to judge My children turned everything against them. If somebody committed a crime and there is clear evidence that he genuinely committed a crime, why should you leave him and lock up an innocent man in prison? Why do you promote your law above Mine? If Satan deceives you to tell lies that you're not the one, your body can never deceive you. How? I created you uniquely to the extent that your fingerprint is never the same as another person's; the palm of your hand is never the same as another person's. Through this one alone, you should know I Am the Almighty God. I Am the One speaking. If Satan made you to lie so they could believe you and set you free, your hand cannot lie to you; your fingers cannot lie to you. Why did you take somebody's fingerprint and know truly he's guilty, and you set him free but jailed an innocent soul? You're telling that person to go ahead and commit another crime again! My hand will be against all of you who judged that case. I Am the Almighty God.

In Britain, most of the kings who ruled before returned to live on this Earth again. Their family gave birth to them again. Some of them are on this Earth now. However, you, the lawmakers, introduced your law that man should marry man and woman should marry woman. If you do it to spite Me, there is no problem. If you say a man should marry a man, how could these people come to live on this Earth again? I created each generation and assigned what they would become. If you seal your womb, how will it happen? I Am the Owner of all the children. That was why I gave you a womb full of many eggs. If I lock up your womb, no doctor will treat you because I will freeze every egg in your womb. The glory I gave you and your generation will go to another family because you honour what I hate. Spirits control every Ordinance I give. If I say 'yes, it's a good Spirit; if I say 'no', an evil spirit will take over immediately.

If you go back into My word, you will see how I created everything before I created you so you could see food to eat and satisfy, and then you can praise Me. And if you praise Me, the seed you plant will germinate and bear good fruit for you and your generation to eat. Whenever My children gather together, praising Me, you will chase them out with police and lock the premises because you don't want them to praise Me. As My children are praising Me, the seed you planted will grow well. Through their prayers, I Am also blessing the land. However, you would chase them out of the temple and lock the door. You open several places for My children to drink and sleep with each other, to send them to Hellfire. Tell Me who did evil between you and Me. Who did evil between you and Me? You don't want to hear the name of God, and you lock them out of the building. You open rooms for My children, whom I created to be nobles and presidents, to commit such atrocities, which I hate. You produce chemicals every day and give them to destroy their lives. My noble children are crying in the cell. All of you deserve it if I get angry today and destroy this Earth. I Am the Almighty God.

If you don't trust and love yourself, I, the Almighty God, love and trust you because as you are, so I Am, but you cannot see Me. I appeared to many people with different faces, and they knew it was Me. I spoke to them about many things. If a lawyer is handling a case and I see that Satan wants to turn the case around, I will appear to that lawyer and reveal the exact criminal, which will settle the case. If a patient is ill and doctors have already given him days to live, if one out of the doctors or the patient believes in Me, I will give the doctor knowledge of what to do, and the patient will live. All of you would later crown the doctor, but I was the One who showed him what to do. For some of them, it's not the medication the doctor gave them. I was the One who entered the doctor and chased the demon that attacked that patient away through him. That's how I do My work.

With every word I Am speaking now, I Am pointing to Great Britain because I chose you so that all My children could learn from you, but you disappointed Me. All My children failed everywhere, but I was still looking unto you, and when I saw you, I was happy. You have turned away from Me. You're not doing My will anymore. You should pile up this message quickly in case calamity falls upon you so that your coming generations will read it. You should document it very well. That's why you should release all My Pastors you locked up everywhere immediately. You also locked up those who came to your country because they were looking for a greener pasture. Release them immediately and let them return to their country and find solutions to their lives. What good is it for you as you lock them up? I didn't teach you such kind of wickedness! What are they doing for you in prison? They came to your country because many of them didn't see food to eat because of the sins of their parents. Open the gate for them and let them return to their country. I have told you before that even though you stop giving people money because you want to save it, the money will go. I Am the Owner of the money. You're only wasting your time. I Am the Solution. If you do My will, your economy will blossom again. I Am the Owner of money. If I bless any nation, and they misuse it, I will dry up the blessing. I Am the Almighty God.

Whatever you do, know for sure there is a consequence. You shouldn't say I Am a wicked Father. I Am not a wicked Father. I love you. All of you should go back now and work on this word, and Britain and America should work on it immediately. All of you celebrated the death of My son, Nelson Mandela. I used him as an example. His heart was like a little child. Whatever you did to him, he forgot it immediately. That's who he was. While he was in that prison, passing through torment, he forgot his pains the following day. He always thought about everybody. The heart he had was My heart. He said, 'These people didn't know we are one'. It was easy for those people to kill him, but I turned things around because I used him as an example. He passed through pain. I used him as an example for all of you. I was the One who put it in the heart of the White people to go to South Africa because I wanted to do something. I now used Mandela as an example. You should let his name be on everything. Let the coming generations know the name of Mandela because he did what I want. You knew you didn't belong to Africa. Why should you go there? But I said you belong to Africa because I Am the Owner of this Earth and everything in it. You can live anywhere if you meet their requirements, but don't do evil. I want all of you to live with each other.

All the countries that are fighting, you should go and put your heads together and settle everywhere. There is trouble everywhere. If there is trouble anywhere, the people I chose as peacemakers should go there and resolve their conflict. You cannot resolve disputes with guns and bombs. If you want to go there, you should go empty-handed. If two people are fighting, you should enter their midst and separate them. Ask them questions about why they're killing each other. Go there and make peace with them. Calm them down. Let them know they're brothers! Some of them are hungry, without food to eat. Some of you turned the truth upside down in the name of your position. You cannot give a gun to one to fight the other. You're looking for My trouble! You shouldn't go there with a bomb because I will judge everybody. You should help those who're crying. That's why I created you.

Whatever religion you choose to belong to, there is a religion I approve of and one I don't approve of. Sin is an abomination to Me. Let your heart be pure and clean in whatever you do. My children are crying everywhere. Their Spirit is moving around everywhere. They have no peace, and they cannot come to Me. They didn't live the life I wanted them to live. I Am coming! My son, tell them I, the Almighty God is coming. I Am giving all of them a warning now, a warning to the whole Earth. It's a warning. It's a warning. It's a warning. I Am the Almighty God. You cannot see Me, but if I start My work, you will know it's Me. As I'm telling all of you, I want you to put this word down. You will see what will happen if you fail to turn back quickly. If you don't do it, you will see Me. I have done it before, and I will do it again. I Am the Almighty God.

If I Am angry and want to do something, what can make Me relent from My anger? If the people change. However, if you refuse to change, I Am the One who created you. That's what I want to do. You should go back and read the story of what I did before. Whatever you serve, I Am the One who created everything. You shouldn't give My glory to an idol. I didn't create all those things to live inside your body. But something happened. The whole Earth started with two people - Adam and Eve. I can destroy the whole Earth today, but if it remains husband and wife, the Earth will be populated again. That's why I hate homosexuality! If I destroy the Earth today and leave man and man, no child can come out of them. If I leave woman and woman, no child can come from them. It's an abomination to Me! If anybody says he's homosexual, they should sit him down and counsel him. There is an evil spirit inside him, which isn't My Spirit. I didn't create you to be a human being by mistake. With what you're doing, you're causing recession to everybody around you because it's an evil spirit. My son, the word is not your word but Mine. I will kill you if you don't deliver it. I Am the Almighty God.

The nations that are crying, all of you should see to their case. I gave some people gold; I gave some people oil; I gave some people every precious stone. Why did I give it to you? So you can feed yourself. I made Britain a bear and America a lion and a tiger. You're My heroes! My son, tell them they failed. Great Britain and America failed. I made you the centre of the Earth, but you failed. You should change now. If you don't change, you will see My wrath. I wanted all My children to learn from you, but you're doing evil every day. This Ordinance is not by force. If you like, you should do it; if you like, you should ignore it. That will not stop Me from doing what I want to do. However, if I lay My curse upon you, I will reverse it if you change and pray. If you say you can do whatever you like, you're doing yourself evil. You will suffer for it. The sin of somebody can push goodness far away from you, especially if you change what I have done. It is an abomination to Me. Evil is an abomination to Me.

I wanted Britain and America to change the lives of Africans because of their idolatry. I hate idolatry! Every country that doesn't serve Me, whatever they serve will begin to swallow them. Open your eyes, and you'll see the examples everywhere. In the countries where all these disasters are happening, you should look at what they serve. My blessing never adds sorrow. What you serve is swallowing you, not Me, the Almighty Father. Before it happened, I knew. I couldn't rescue you because you give My glory to an idol. You said fish is your creator; animal is your creator; let them save you. I cannot save you. The only thing I can do for you is if you go down to the Dark-Planet, you will learn a lesson after you return to this Earth again. If you like, you can return a hundred times; that's your problem. The spirit of whatever you serve is inside you. You cannot defile My Spirit. I Am the Almighty God.

For example, suppose I connect the soul of your daughter to a family through marriage, and you do evil to that family and die. In that case, you will come back to enjoy the evil you did to that family because your daughter or any of her children will give birth to you again. Even if nobody gives birth to you there, and your daughter is married to that family, automatically, you're part of the family. It may not be through you; it may be your grandfather. But your daughter happens to marry in that family. Does the evil touch you or not? That's why it's not good to do evil because everything that goes around also comes around. Before I created human beings, I used animals as an example. If a hen lays her eggs, they all have the same colour. If she hatches the eggs, their actual colour comes out. That's how I created human beings. The colour means nothing. I Am the Owner of Black and White. If you test their blood, you'll know they're the same. The colour means nothing. You shall reap whatever you sow, whether good or evil. I Am coming to you.

Great Britain, you shouldn't seek My wrath because I was the One who built the nation. I have come a long way with you. Great Britain, I have come a very long way with you. You shouldn't allow what I built to spoil. If it spoils, it will be very hard for you. You should leave it as I built it and maintain the holiness. If you spoil it, it will be very hard for you. I Am the One who created each nation for My children to live in. You're going away from Me now. Great Britain, you're going away from Me now. As you're going away from Me, you can't stand it when the trouble comes. If you call upon Me, I will close My eyes and ears to you.

Your forefathers connected their hearts to Me. I made every nation forget their wealth and country because I wanted everybody to emulate you. What are you doing? You're going far from Me very quickly. If you go far from Me, when the trouble comes, it will be worse than all the other nations. I Am the Almighty God. If you're making it and eating well, it's not by your power; it's from Me. The work that your forefathers did is going down. If you fetch water into a bucket and drink it, what happens if you fail to fill it up? The water your forefathers fetched into the bucket for you to drink is going down very fast, and you refuse to fill it up. Holiness is My food. If you're living in holiness, I will bless you. But if you begin to do evil, evil will befall you. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the Authority. I Am the Great I Am That I Am. If the trouble comes, you will not see any solution to it. Anywhere you go, you will not see the solution. I Am the Almighty God. You must work on this message immediately.

I Am the Owner of this Earth. Nobody can see Me. I have been using My children right from the beginning. All of you should do good, and you will see money everywhere. If you do evil and lock up money inside your bank, I, the Almighty God, will go there and take the money. I Am the Owner of the money. All the nations I gave gold, I will dry it up if they misuse it. My children are suffering everywhere! My children are slaves because of the treasure I gave to them. My children cry to me every day. I gave them a blessing, but somebody uses it to do them evil. All the nations I gave gold and oil, I will dry it up if you misuse it. I will take My treasures away. My children are suffering. My noble children whom I gave a blessing, the blessing turned to sorrow. I Am the Almighty God. You cannot see Me. Nobody can see Me. I have been speaking through My children right from the beginning. Sin is an abomination to Me. I hate evil! I hate evil! I hate evil. Whatever I say I will do, I will do. If I say I will destroy the whole Earth today, I will destroy it. I Am giving all of you the last warning!

I Am the One who created White and Black. I was the One who brought My children to you so they could learn. I did you good, but you paid Me evil. I have not withdrawn My hand from you totally. If I withdraw My hand from you totally, you will see it physically. But you're going away now. I, the Almighty God, Am still with you, but you're going away from Me speedily. I Am with you, but you're the one who's going away from Me. You turned what I did around to say I don't exist anymore. If I take away your breath, can you be a living being? If I take away what I gave you, can you have them? I Am the Almighty God. I have the power to create; I have the power to destroy. My wrath is coming upon you because of everything you're doing.

Evil spirits are behind everything you do. I never do evil. Whatever I say you shouldn't do, the spirit that controls it will come to you if you do it. I Am telling you now that you're preparing evil for your coming generations. If the evil comes, you will cry to Me, and I will stop it. But before I stop it, many souls might have died. It's very hard to repair. It's very easy to do evil, but it's very hard to repair. Whatever I say you shouldn't do, don't do it. Go into My word - The Bible and see what I did to those who vandalised and ignored My word. You should go and meet the nation. Some of them are still on this Earth. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the One who asked My son Radiant to tell you everything. I Am the Almighty God. If you doubt My word, go to bed, pray, and sleep; My Spirit is inside you, and I will reveal Myself to you so you can know I Am the One speaking. If two people are fighting, the third person should go there empty-handed and separate them. You want to separate a fight and carry instruments of destruction along with you. What do you think you're doing? You're telling them to continue to destroy themselves.

The Spirits of those who died among the soldiers you sent to war are crying because you fought a stupid war, a war of wickedness. I, the Almighty God, didn't go with you. That was why they killed many of you. You shouldn't have gone for that war. The souls of the armies you sent to fight are crying to Me. Can you bring them back again? Now you're eating! All of you who decided to send soldiers to war are eating and laughing, but can you care for their widows and orphans? Can you care for the generations that are coming? Can you fill the vacuum you created in their lives?

If you fight a good fight, I will go with you, but if you fight a fight of wickedness, I will not go with you. The enemies will defeat you. Why Am I saying this? I Am saying it because I Am coming. If you change, I will relent from My anger, but if you say no, that it's not Almighty God speaking to you, all of you will see Me. That's why I want all of you to put this word down. You should record it somewhere. If you want My wrath, you will see it. If you want peace to reign, you must go back and change everything you've done. You have to seek for mercy. Why Am I saying this? I want you to ask for mercy and change what you've done so I can relent from My anger because it's very easy to destroy. If I want to destroy this Earth today, it's very easy, but to repair is complicated. Even if I repair it, many lives might have been wasted. If I, the Almighty God, want to do something and fail to tell you, I Am guilty because I Am the One who brought the Law. Spirits guide every word I speak. I also have a conscience. I Am the One who brought everything. Everything is from Me. I Am the Beginning; I Am the Ending; I Am the Great I Am That I Am. Nobody controls Me. I Am the One that created Myself. I Am a Spirit. I Am the Breeze. I Am listening to every word you speak. I hear everything.

Before I do anything, I weigh it. I must know the ending before I start it. I don't judge My case anyhow. I created you physically and spiritually. I brought My children - Pastors as spiritual people to work and teach you My word. You cannot cure many sicknesses physically because they're spiritual. But you say there is no God. If you say, there is no God and cannot cure the patient when they brought him to you, you fail. As a doctor, if you believe there is God, I will use your hand to heal the patient because you put your trust in Me. I Am the One who created that person. I know the kind of sin he committed that made the demon attack him in the form of sickness. Whatever sickness you have, it's a result of your sin. Unless somebody appeases the spirit, he will not leave. However, you say there is no God. If you say there is no God, how can you heal? You will conclude that somebody will die tomorrow, and indeed, he will die. You cannot cure the sickness that person has because you say there is no God. You turn yourself to God. I Am coming to you. You, as a doctor that says there is no God, you don't believe in Me, so I can use you to work; I will come to you, and I will kill you.

Why or how are you alive? Who gave you the wisdom and knowledge you use in doing your work? I Am inside you. If you say there is no God, that means you don't exist because you can only live through Me. If you say there is no God, you're not a human being also. You're dead! That's why you must put your faith in My faith. There is no need for you to announce that you're a Christian. What I require from you is holiness. Boast of Me, and you will see what I will do through you. That was why I worked with My Son Jesus Christ in the beginning but didn't bring Him physically for people to see. Why did I bring Him? I brought Him to entreat your sin. The Host of Heaven knew He was part of My Family, but nobody knew Him on Earth. I brought Him because of your sin, because of your evil. You don't need to believe in Jesus Christ. Those who believe in Him have their place in Me. I Am not a confusion Father. I want everybody to live together in peace and harmony.

In the beginning, there was nothing like religion. In the beginning, it was only Me, the Father. But why did My Son appear in the centre? He appeared because of your sin. I don't need to announce Jesus Christ to those who know and believe that their sins are forgiven through Jesus Christ. All I need from you is not to give My glory to an idol. I Am the Almighty God.

If you want to know more about Me, that's where Jesus Christ comes in. If you're a Muslim, I Am the Beginning and the Ending. What I want from you is to be holy because I Am Holy. I gave you an Ordinance to follow. I Am not a wicked Father. If you doubt My word, you should do whatever you want, and you will see My wrath. If you doubt My word, that I Am not the One speaking, go into My word, and you will know that I Am a talkative right from the beginning. If I don't speak, you cannot know who I Am. I must speak to you so you don't go to the wrong place. I have used many of My children as examples on this Earth.

My children, Africans, are My last born. I love them, but they're doing what I hate. That was why I allowed you to take them away so they could mingle and learn from you. But what happened? They forgot about Me upon the suffering they went through. If something wants to be good, it must be rough. In the course of taking them as slaves, many of them died. I said it's good for some people to die so that those who would learn would raise a better generation. Without idolatry in their background, they would learn about Me and raise a glorious generation. Upon the iron hand I used in carrying them as captives away from their land, they still do evil today. I Am warning them again. If they don't change, I will deal with them. I Am the Almighty God.

If you put your money in the bank, I will remove it because I Am the Owner of the money. I have done many things before. I can cause damage to your tap. You will open your tap, and water will refuse to flow. I can seize water for five good days. You will not see water to drink. I can use many things to punish all of you. If it happens, many people might have died before you begin to search for the root of the problem. I can cause trouble to the source of your electricity. I can blow away your transformer, and there will be darkness everywhere. But you'll begin to blame your electricians. It's My handwork because you say you know more than Me. If there is darkness for three days, you know how much damage it will cause. You're telling Me there is no God.

I Am the One who owns everything you're using. I Am the One who owns the land. I Am the One who owns the light. I Am the One who owns the water. I give you wisdom and brain so you can connect all of them together and enjoy them, but you say there is no God. Where will you build your house if I take My land from you? Where will you plant your crops if I take My land from you? I can do so many things to you for you to know I Am the Almighty God. Why Am I telling you? I Am coming so you can prepare and amend your ways.

If you want to run a race, you will practice. Can We run the race together? Because you know how to run. If you know you can compete with Me, let Us run together. But I warn you ahead so you can prepare yourself. Nobody can run a race with Me. What happened to those who tried it in the time of old? Nobody can run with the Almighty God. Can you run with Me? I Am the Owner of this Earth. I Am the Creator. Nobody challenges Me. Nobody was before Me, and nobody will be after Me. I Am the Beginning; I Am the Ending. I take, I give, I destroy, I restore. I Am the Almighty God. I Am proud of Myself. If you want you and your generation to live a good life, take My word. I Am speaking to the whole world, but I don't expect everybody to take it. If you're good, you're good to yourself. Those who're marked for good should take it and work on it. But those whom Satan has marked for destruction, I don't expect them to take it. You cannot change My word. Wherever you choose to go, I Am the One that owns it. Dark-Planet is Mine; Hellfire is Mine; Heaven is Mine; even this Earth is Mine. Anyone you choose, you will meet Me there. I Am the Almighty God.

Satan makes you forget about Me because he wants to destroy you. Whenever your son and daughter do anything wrong, he will tell you to jail him, jail her. The noble children I created to do good things on this Earth are imprisoned. They're crying inside prison because the enemies know who they are. You opened the door for them to do whatever they wanted because you said there was no God. Satan now sent them to prison. You're there to judge them. Yes, they did it. Why did they do it? You don't know. If you had trained that child the way of God, that God said we shouldn't drink and drunk, we shouldn't do this and that, Satan will not take the glory of that child away.

I Am the Alpha. I Am the Omega. You cannot chase Me away from this Earth. I Am the One that will chase you away because I created this Earth before. I chased away those who lived here before you, and I still have the power to chase you away. But this time around, I will not chase you away alone. I will take you to where you will suffer everlasting torment because I spoke to you. I sent Prophets to you so you could change, but you said no. You cannot do Me anything. I Am the One who has the power to destroy you. Everlasting torment will be your portion.

I Am still speaking to My children everywhere. Some of them I spoke to don't have any means to talk to people about it that Somebody is speaking to them. That's how I speak to My children every day. If you're a president or a governor, you will lead my children astray if nobody can talk to you. None of you believe in the word of Prophets and Pastors anymore. That is your life. Any president or governor who doesn't believe in the word of Prophets and Pastors is doomed for destruction. You must accept every word of holiness that somebody tells you because I don't want you to go to Hellfire. But you're saying they should leave you alone. If I don't correct you, how will you know where you miss it? You cannot see Me. I created you to rule physically; Prophets and Pastors rule spiritually. That's why I speak to Prophets and Pastors to speak to you. Go to My word - The Bible and see how I spoke through Prophets to warn the kings who ruled in the time of old so they could turn back. Those who turned back lived, and evil befell those who refused to turn back. Why Am I telling all of you? If the problem begins to come, you will not know its root because you have signed evil and destruction for your children with your hands. We signed it, let evil befall all our children; what the Father asked us not to do, we signed to do it because demons are ruling us.

As you signed that man and man should marry, woman and woman should marry, you categorically said there is no God. You also said evil should befall your children and their generation. Now you're enjoying what you didn't know how it was laboured for. Those who laboured for it didn't eat. They prayed to Me day and night. They left everything they were doing and prayed. Now you're enjoying their sweat. The bucket of their water of righteousness and holiness is running out, and it only remains little. Britain, the bucket of water of righteousness and holiness that your forefathers fetched for you is running out because you say there is no God. Whatever you do, you must see the result quickly, whether good or bad. I Am telling you because it's very hard to repair if things go wrong. I will not stop until I finish My work.

Listen to Me. If I say you will suffer for 99 years, no matter how you pray, I will not listen to you until those 99 years are over. It may be like nonsense to all of you. You should go into My word - The Bible and see what I did in the time of old. I Am not saying all of you should go there, but those who know they believe in Me, those who know they believe in the Father, those who call themselves Christians should go into My word - The Bible and see what I did before. I Am sending My son Radiant to deliver this message to all of you so you can quickly repair everything you've spoilt before it's too late. Repair them quickly! Those I choose as fathers to settle disputes should go and appease all the nations they've offended immediately. They should go and appease all the families where they've fought the fight of wickedness, the fight I didn't send them to fight. They have destroyed many souls, and they should go and apologise. I didn't send you all the fight you fought.

If anyone wants to come to your country, let them know your laws before coming. Let them know you're a nation that serves God. Let them tell you the truth. If you know that person is telling you lies, send him back immediately. Return him to his country. You should open the door for all My children you locked up in the cell because you don't want them in your country. Let them return to their country and get on with their lives. They're crying to Me! You sent the husband away and kept the wife and children. You sent the wife away and kept the husband and children. I created you to build homes, to build families. I didn't create you to destroy. Are you the owner of the country? I Am the Owner! The land is Mine. If you don't repair everything you've destroyed quickly, My wrath is coming upon you.

The souls of the armies are crying. They want to come back to life again. They want to come back to take care of their wives and children. Many of them didn't know the meaning of death. They died very young. If there's anyone among them you haven't settled, you should go and appease them so that their soul can rest. You should also go and appease the country you sent them to fight. Tell them, 'We are sorry; Almighty Father chose us to make peace, but we went on our own way; we are very sorry'. I Am annoyed!

In the beginning, I didn't choose anybody to make peace. But when I made nations as examples of good and evil, why won't you follow them? You should go and appease the families of those who were killed by your soldiers so that the souls of the dead can rest. All of you should resolve your differences. If you fail to resolve your differences, another war is coming. The sore is still there. Many children have no father, but you're enjoying. You're happy because they're calling you American, calling you European. Many of them don't see food to eat. You should go and appease them quickly.

Many of those women only had one child, and you sent their only child to war and died. For a woman to carry a pregnancy for 9 months, if you don't pity that woman, you should pity the Almighty God who created that child. Many of them sought a child for several years, and I promised them a hero as a child. But a hero went to fight where he shouldn't have gone to fight and was killed. The mother is crying, 'Father, you promised me a child; why did You allow him to die; but he's serving You'. He wasn't serving Me; he was serving his president or prime minister. I Am not a supporter of evil.

I, the Almighty God, have trained you in what you should do in a time like this. I Am ashamed of you. You're doing what I didn't teach you. Your forefathers worked hard for the cap of glory you want to remove from your head. People worked hard for the unmerited favour that came to you. They prayed to Me twenty-four-seven, and I blessed them. If you know yourself, some people among you still know how your forefathers served Me. Ask them, and they will tell you. This time around, I Am not telling you to kill somebody because she's a witch. But if there is a witch among you, let her go and confess to a holy man of God. That was why I brought My Son, Jesus Christ. I Am not a wicked Father. That's the only way to send away the spirit of witchcraft. Then, stay away from any dirty place because the spirit works like a magnet. If you go and do evil again, the spirit will return to you. After your confession, run away from any appearance of evil. If you continue to do evil, you and your generation call My wrath to fall upon you. I Am the Almighty God.

If I don't tell you, how will you know? Many of My Pastors in different places are afraid to speak the truth because they think you will arrest and kill them if they speak the truth. As a Pastor, I chose you to teach My children about holiness. If you fail to do My will, you're going to Hellfire whenever you die. Go and release all My servants you locked in the cell because of My word quickly. Right from the beginning, I didn't keep quiet about holiness. When I wanted to destroy this Earth in the time of Noah, how did they know I wanted to destroy it? I spoke out through somebody! Why did you lock up My children when they're speaking about Me? My wrath is against any nation that locked up My children in prison. I Am the Almighty God.

I have spoken through many people on this Earth. You can read about many of them everywhere. I revealed My glory to many people. I told all of you why I drove the demons from Heaven and also told you what you should do to avoid them. If you eat another man's food unlawfully, demons will come to you because you steal. If you lie, the demon of lie will come to you. You cannot be who I want you to be anymore. If somebody abuses a woman sexually and you lock him up in prison for 10 years, it will not drive away the spirit of fornication and adultery on this Earth. As you do that, you destroy the glory of My children. If you jail somebody for 10 years and release him, he will come back to do the same thing again because the spirit lives inside him. The earlier you teach the children not to eat another person's food, the better. If you sleep with a woman while you're not married, you're a thief. Let them know! If you teach them right from the beginning, they will know. No matter how that woman opens her body, they will control themselves. The spirit attracts people to commit sin in everything you do. I Am the Almighty God.

All the leaders are corrupt. My children cry to Me every day. Those who call themselves Christians have gone far from Me. All those I gave Ordinance to follow have gone far away from Me. I want My children back home. I want them to change. I Am the same God. I can destroy this Earth in a twinkling of an eye. This Earth has its own life. The Earth is moving. I, Myself, Am the Earth. That's why nobody can destroy it. I Am the only One who can destroy it; nobody else. When I destroyed it with water, I only destroyed the people inside. If I had destroyed it, Noah and his family wouldn't have lived in it anymore.

Since I created this Earth, I haven't destroyed it. I only destroyed those living in it. They were foolish, and I wiped them away and created Adam and Eve and put Myself inside them. When they began to commit sin, I wiped them off and left Noah and his family. If I want to destroy this Earth today, you cannot see Me. I will only do it with the word of My mouth. That's why all of you should have My fear. Those I chose to lead My children, all you leaders, why do you go away from Me so soon that there's no God? I believe and put My trust in you that you would deliver My message as I wanted you to deliver it. You now say there's no God. What happens then to the nations that say there is no God if you that believed in Me could quickly fall away? I love you!

I punished some of you because of idolatry. Though in Britain, you were not that deep into idolatry, but you were into witchcraft. I told your forefathers I didn't like it, and they quickly corrected it and wiped off those who had the spirit. The spirit of witchcraft doesn't mean you should serve something. If the spirit enters you, it will use you to destroy people. It may enter you through an ordinary biscuit that somebody gave to you. It will possess you. It is a demon. It can enter you through anything. That was why I said they should kill anyone who has it. Your parents put their heart in Me and wiped off the spirits that could have been an obstacle to My work in the land and built the nation for you to enjoy. Do you think everything you enjoy is by your power? Now you say there is no God. If you say there is no God, can you wait for My wrath? I don't expect you to change. I don't force you to change. But I want you to know that I Am the same God of Old, and I Am warning you openly.

As My son Radiant is speaking to you now, every spirit is hearing, and the air is hearing, both physically and spiritually, so that nobody will say he hasn't heard it before whenever I want to judge. You're eating what you didn't work for. I remain Father until the end. This was how I warned My children in the past. This is not the beginning of it and will not be the ending of it. If all of you do well, you will see it. If you do well, I will praise you. If you don't do well, I will rebuke you. If you continue in your evil, I will destroy you. I don't want evil to befall anybody, and that's why I Am warning all of you. What I should do as a Father is what I Am doing now. I Am not guilty anymore. You will not say you didn't hear. You have done your own; now I want to do Mine. It's very easy for you to turn back. However, if you say you don't want to turn back, you will manage whatever you see. It's disgraceful and shameful because Satan will put fear into your heart.

If I, the Almighty God destroyed nations because of what you're doing now, why won't I destroy you? Am I a partial Father? What you're doing is an abomination to Me! Why won't I destroy you? Why won't I withhold My food away from you? My Spirit is inside you. I Am the One that owns you. What will happen to you if I withdraw Myself from you? You will become an abomination to everybody because of what you're doing. As I said, I will send you away from the country, and nobody will accept you wherever you go because My curse is upon you. Everybody will hate you because you carry what I hate. Nowhere for you to enter. All of you that said man should marry man and woman should marry woman have brought a curse upon everybody. You will be treated as an outcast wherever you go because the land will not contain you anymore after I withdraw My hand from you. If there is no food, what will you eat; how will you survive? If there is no money, how will you live? Evil will also befall any nation that accepts you. Through this, all of you will know I still speak through a Prophet on this Earth. I Am the Almighty God.

The land is My land. You cannot run away from Me. If you try it, you're looking for My wrath, and if My wrath comes, you cannot stand it; it will be very tough. Innocent children will be crying without knowing their fathers have brought problems upon them. If every other nation is doing evil, going far away from Me, not Britain and America, because I trusted you, but you spat on My face. I revealed Myself to your forefathers to spread My Good News to all My children. If I deal with a nation and that nation fails Me, I still have the power to go to another nation. I Am the One that owns everybody. If I deal with any nation, the impact will be there throughout generations. I Am coming again! I Am coming again.

You shouldn't say you didn't hear. I Am only telling you, so you won't say I take you unaware. You should continue if you know you love what you're doing. You may count My word as nothing or think My son Radiant is the one speaking to you. I have spoken to many people about this matter, but they couldn't broadcast it. The money all of you are crying for is My money. I Am the Owner of money. No matter what you do, you may keep a huge amount of money in your bank; I will take it from there. You will know a huge amount of money disappeared from your treasury, but you cannot account for how it disappeared. I Am the Owner of money. If you serve Me well, you will put £10 in your bank, and I will boost it to a million. You will not know how it happens; I Am the One. But if you say no, you want to go your own way, you will know I Am the Almighty God. I Am the same God of Old and the same God of New. Nobody will be like Me. I never destroy; I remain the same.

If you work well, I will crown you. If you don't work well, nobody will rescue you if I pursue you. People like you gave their lives to Me until death because they knew I was their life. If you say, I Am not your life, who is your life? People dedicated their lives to Me without owning anything on this Earth. They said, 'I don't want anything but my Father'. They didn't suffer, and I revealed to them that I Am the Almighty God.

If you claim you know more than Me, I can destroy many things because of you alone. You're proud of your electricity. I can blow up your transformer! I can do it! You think you have power. If your transformer has a problem, I will see how you will light up your nation. But I don't do evil. If you do what is good, I will reward you. If you do evil, I will punish you for it. I Am the Owner of the electricity you use. I Am the Owner of the water you drink. I Am the Owner of the food you eat. Why do you say there is no God? You say there is no God. My Son Jesus Christ took little children to Heaven and Hellfire for them to know who I Am. But you say there is no God. Do you all believe I have done something on this Earth before? No one is good anymore. Those who're good have turned away.

My son, I have put My mouth into your mouth so you can speak to My children. You must speak to them without looking back. All of you begin to promote the evil I hate. You encourage all My children to do what I hate. If I Am the One that created this Earth, then all of you must live by My word. In the beginning, when they disobeyed Me in the Garden, I left them; I gave them a chance. When evil began to befall them, I came and rescued those who listened to Me. I have come again! How can I rescue you? If you live by My word alone. If you don't live by My word, I will pursue you anywhere you go. If you enter inside the water, I Am there. Anywhere you enter, I Am there. I Am the Almighty God. I can kill all the fish in the sea because of you. I can prevent rain from falling because of you. I can kill all the crops because of you. I can fight you with everything! If all of you ignore My word, you will see Me. I have spoken My word.

Many young men are afraid to pick a wife. Why? Because demons are attached to the Spirits of many women. Can two walk together except they agree? If 3 or 100 demons are connected to your Spirit, how can you marry? You cannot marry again because your Spirit has married many men already. They're your husbands. That's why I Am shouting! That's why you see single fathers and single mothers everywhere. If you lay with any man with the body I gave to you, the spirit of that man lives inside you until you die. If you lay with 10 men, their spirits are inside you until you die. You cannot meet your right husband anymore. If you meet your right husband by chance, you will hate him because another spirit lives inside you. If you think the money you're giving that woman will solve her problem, you're causing more problems to the community. Any child she gives birth to will also be a single father or mother, which will continue for generations. The money you're giving to them will not solve their problem. It's a spiritual problem. You're causing more problems for the whole nation because you go on your own way. I created he and she who love each other and become one. Did I separate them when they committed sin in the Garden? But the seed of the sin worked in their lives. They gave birth to children inside sin. I Am the Almighty God.

Concerning Africa

Africans are My children. You're My last born. You're the apple of My eye. Africa is the apple of My eye. Africa is the apple of My eye. But no matter how much I love you or how you're the apple of My eye, I will reject you if you continually do what I hate. No matter how you call Me twenty-four-seven, you're an abomination to Me if you do what I hate. I hate idolatry. That's why it seems as if I don't hear all the prayers you're praying. As you're praying, the idol is the first thing I see inside you. All of you should put away your idol; else, My hand will be against you. If I couldn't tolerate him in Heaven but drove him out of there, why do you tolerate him? All your services are in vain because of your idol. I cannot eat food from any of you because you carry what I hate. You have what irritates Me. No matter how I bless you, you can never prosper if you choose to serve an idol. If you choose to serve Me, the Almighty God, wash your hands clean and allow Me to do whatever I want to do.

You claim you're serving Me, and your heart is in idolatry. You will leave Me and go to your shrine to sacrifice animals. Why did I kill Jesus Christ for you? Every day by day, you're crying, using your noise to disturb Me. You're disturbing Me! You're not doing what I request from you. You cried and cried, and I opened the door of blessing to you. After I open the door of blessing, you and your family will leave Me. You called everybody to pray to Me so I could release My blessing upon you. After I released My blessing, you went and married wives upon wives and bought cars upon cars, had children upon children, and built houses upon houses. You invited demons into your life again through those things you did. You brought innocent children into this world to suffer. That's why I close My ears whenever you pray because I know your heart. I Am the Almighty God.

You're praying every day. Somebody is sucking away the wealth I gave to you. As you're serving that thing, he will tell you to marry, have a concubine, and buy a limousine so that others will not eat. That's not what I taught you. If you have two apples, eat one and give the other to somebody else so that both of you can be satisfied. Tomorrow, I will provide another one. Why do you have ten apples and lock it up for yourself? If you continue to do that, I will take away what I gave you. The oil I gave you, I will dry it up. I Am using Nigeria as an example!

Why doesn't oil flow like water? Why did I bury it in the ground? How do you extract oil? What will you do if you dig the ground and find no oil? I Am wiser than all of you. Are you the one who gave birth to Me, or Am I the One who gave birth to you? Is the oil flowing like water? I alone determine whether the oil will flow or stop. The oil can stop at any time. Why will it stop? Because of your wickedness! You're telling Me I don't know anything! Come, let us run together.

I want everybody to benefit from whatever I give to any nation. I also want other countries to benefit from it. If I give you a blessing, the idol will take the blessing away from you. This was the reason why I sent you to the land of slavery. You're the apple of My eye. As I created White, I also created you. I only use the colour to differentiate you. But you're doing what I hate most. If you continue to do that and think you're serving Me, where are you going whenever you die? No matter how you repair the country or continent, nothing can be good if you're still serving your idol. That idol is a human being himself. He is a spirit of destroyer. You should go and see the Law I gave to the nation I dealt with. They're still on this Earth. What happens to anyone who has a spirit that contradicts My Spirit? I have done it before. Why won't I kill you? Why will you escape My wrath when I Am still the same God yesterday, today, and forever? If you say I Am not the One speaking to you, you should do whatever you want. You should also know I will come in a way you least expected because you cannot see Me. All of you will think it's a joking matter. This word goes to all the races on this Earth. I Am the Almighty God.

Those who know how to do good should continue to do good. No matter how you do good, if somebody is your brother and does what I hate, your good is in vain because the Spirit of your brother connects to your Spirit. That's why if any member of your family does what I hate, you should wash your hands clean so that My wrath will not fall upon you. Tell him your Father in Heaven says we shouldn't do evil. If a man commits fornication or adultery with an unmarried woman, why do you put him in prison? Because he did evil! But why didn't you teach Him My way while he was still a child so he could know how to flee from evil? For example: Don't touch my cup; I will arrest you if you do. Then that fellow will learn how to stay away from your cup. But you live together in the house, the cup is precious to you, and you don't tell that fellow not to touch it because you, the owner, also mishandle it. Don't you know that you, the owner, are to blame? I Am talking of women now.

As parents, you must teach your daughters the way they should go right from childhood. Let them know what can defile them. If they defile their body, they cannot be what I created them to be on this Earth. If you help that child maintain her body, you will help her fulfil My purpose for her life. But you allow her to do whatever she wants. You'll blame Me if trouble comes. Where were you when she put herself into the market for all men to go and buy? Don't you know all those things are spirits? Any word I speak carries Spirit, whether good or evil. If you vandalise My word, it will not end on you alone. It will extend to your children and their generation. I Am the Almighty God.

You're not serving Me because you want to go to Heaven. You're serving Me because of the money you want to eat. I already gave you the money, but you lost it because of your idols! If you serve an idol, if I give you anything, he will first take the bulk from you because the spirit never walks alone. He always moves with many other spirits. If all the spirits take their own, what then will be yours? That's what's happening in Africa.

If you serve an idol, the spirit is like a human being, but you cannot see him. Whatever blessing comes your way, he will first take his own. That's why you see greed, anger and bitterness come in. And that spirit sucks blood. That's why I hate idolatry. Any nation that practices idolatry is in trouble. That's why you see evil befall them. I don't like it. I created all those spirits to live where I put them. I didn't create them for you to serve them. Your life is in danger as you serve them. It's better for you to neither serve them nor belong to anything. You can be on your own. They will not come to wherever you are. I, the Almighty Father, now come out that you will have peace if you serve only Me. Why can't you serve your Father? I Am your Father. Why can't you serve Me? Don't do the things that are abominations to Me. Don't kill. Don't bear false witness. That's why I gave you the Law to follow. I Am the Almighty God.

The way of God is the way of obedience. If you say there is no God, where will obedience come from? If there is no God, you'll begin to misbehave. If you commit sin, demons will hold you and punish you. If you don't teach a child what is right, how will he know? Automatically, you tell that child not to do good in life, to follow the path of destruction. That's why I don't trouble you whether you give your life to Jesus Christ or not, whether you're a Muslim or not because the food you cook will tell you where you belong to. If you do what I don't want, the wrath of demons will come to you. That was why I didn't appear to My children right from the beginning.

When I saw that evil was befalling them because of what they were doing, I now came down and chose somebody as an example so everybody could emulate him and walk in My way. I was the One that chose Abraham. However, if you don't belong to Christianity or Islam, if you feel you want to remain on your own, do good, don't do evil. Make everybody around you happy. Don't do what I don't like. You should go back to My word and see why I destroyed people in the time of old. If you're still doing what made Me destroyed people, then you're not doing My will.

If you call yourself a Christian, you must follow My Law. If you call yourself a Muslim, you must follow the Ordinance I gave to Mohammed. Both of them are the same. Every of My Ordinance is about holiness. If you say you belong to any of these two and still do evil, you're not doing My will. You're causing problems for your generation. That is certain. I hate evil. Don't serve idols. Any nation that serves idols is not from Me. I hate idolatry. As you serve an idol, you call that spirit to come and live inside you. And if that spirit lives inside you, he will fight My blessing in your life and your generation.

As you serve idols, they have the power to take everything you have. Whenever they fight you, I will look down, and I cannot rescue you because you choose them above Me. I Am the One that created them. I didn't create them for you to serve them. You're in trouble because you serve them. I cannot rescue you. It's an abomination to Me. Whatever I say you shouldn't do, you will manage whatever you see if you go ahead and do it. Any nation that serves another god that's not Me is an abomination to Me. You will manage whatever you see.

Some of you think you're serving God. You're not serving God. You have gone far away from God. Don't share My glory with animals. Give Me My glory. Return My glory to Me. Do good; don't do evil. I chose Great Britain because they weren't deep in serving all these things. That was why I loved them. They introduced Me to Africa and served Me. Africa loves Me, but you still do what is an abomination to Me. My punishment will be upon you if you continually do what I hate. You cannot see peace unless you do away with My abominations. As you serve that thing, he will be the one to control your life. As you serve him, it contains greed, anger, bitterness, hatred, jealousy and all sorts. They have their own spirits.

If you serve them, you cannot see peace. I Am the Almighty God.

You're not serving Me because you love Me. You're serving Me because of what you want to eat. I have given you the food. What takes the food far away from you? Somebody is taking the food away from you. That idol lives in your lives. That spirit is struggling with you. You will not see peace until you take that one away and learn how to do My will. How can you learn how to do My will? Obey My word. Do My will. Save one another. Help one another. If you do all these, you will see peace whenever you pray to Me. You're eating and don't want another person to eat. The idol you serve is the cause of all this, and you don't know. I have dealt with nations before. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the Solution to every problem.

If you serve Me well, you will see peace in your house; you will see peace in your city; you will see peace in your state; you will see peace in your country; you will see peace in the whole world because I Am the Beginning and the Ending. I Am the Solution to every problem. No spirit has power more than Me. I Am the Creator. That's why you cannot hold the spirit of death. I Am the Almighty God. I have the power to tell the spirit of death, 'Don't go there'. You're a human being. I Am the One who created the spirit of death. Why should you die and leave your life? Yes, you will die, but there is a time for it. Why should you die prematurely? Because you go away from Me! You're far away from the Father. You don't do My will. You're doing what I hate. Therefore, you cause the spirit of death to come.

Let Me go before you in everything you do. If you're a doctor, let Me go before you. If you're a lawyer, let Me go before you. If you want to build a house, let Me give you the power to build it. If you build the house in your own way, it will not stand. Whatever you want to do, let Me lead you because I work with principles. I Am the One who brought the Law of obedience. I don't vandalise My Law; I also obey it. I must also obey it because I Am the One who brought the Law. I do Myself harm if I disobey it.

In the time of old, I helped My children to fight. Why? Because of the nations that forgot Me. I would help you to fight those wicked nations so that My children who love Me could live in peace. I Am not a wicked Father. Right from the beginning, I fight the fight of holiness. I don't fight the fight of wickedness. I don't fight anyhow. I fight the fight of peace. All of you should emulate Me. Forgiveness is very important. If you don't forgive somebody, nobody will also forgive you. You're flesh, and you must make mistakes. Learn My word; live in Me; live by My word. If you don't live in My word, you will commit sin every day. Even if you don't serve Me, don't do evil. If you do evil, the spirit of evil will come to you. He will visit you and your generation. Even though you don't attend church, you will last on this Earth if you do good. The day you die, you will go to the category you belong to. You only get what you work for.

If you attend school and read your book, your mark determines your promotion. You cannot get what you don't work for. You can only get what you work for. If they say you're entitled to work 24 hours a day, you can only work 24 hours. You can never work more than that, and working 24 hours a day is very difficult. Some may work 23 hours, some 19 hours, and some 15 hours. They will only pay you for the work you do. You cannot get the wages you didn't work for. If you get it, you commit sin. That is this Earth. You can see yourself as a champion; you don't know Me and don't need Me. Whatever you serve will come and take you away.

Many things happen to many nations because they don't know Me. They believe they're everything. I Am the Almighty God. I don't trouble Myself. I have opened some people's eyes to know who I Am so that you will learn how to serve Me through them. The people I opened their eyes, that did My will now say there is no God anymore. Can anybody fight Me because I Am coming? If I don't tell you and evil begins to befall you, you will not know where you've wronged Me. I Am the only One who can take the Earth away. No one can take the Earth away from Me. And before I take it away, I will show those wrestling with Me and fighting with Me that I Am the Almighty God.

I was the One who made a covenant with Abraham so that My children could learn how to do good through him, not do evil. Even Mohammed was from Me. I was the One that showed him how to follow Me. I do everything so that My children will have peace. If you destroy others because of your religion, that religion isn't from Me. The souls of all My children you killed are crying to Me. Their Spirits don't rest. Nobody will escape My wrath, whether you're serving a mermaid or anything else. Whenever you die, They will judge you.

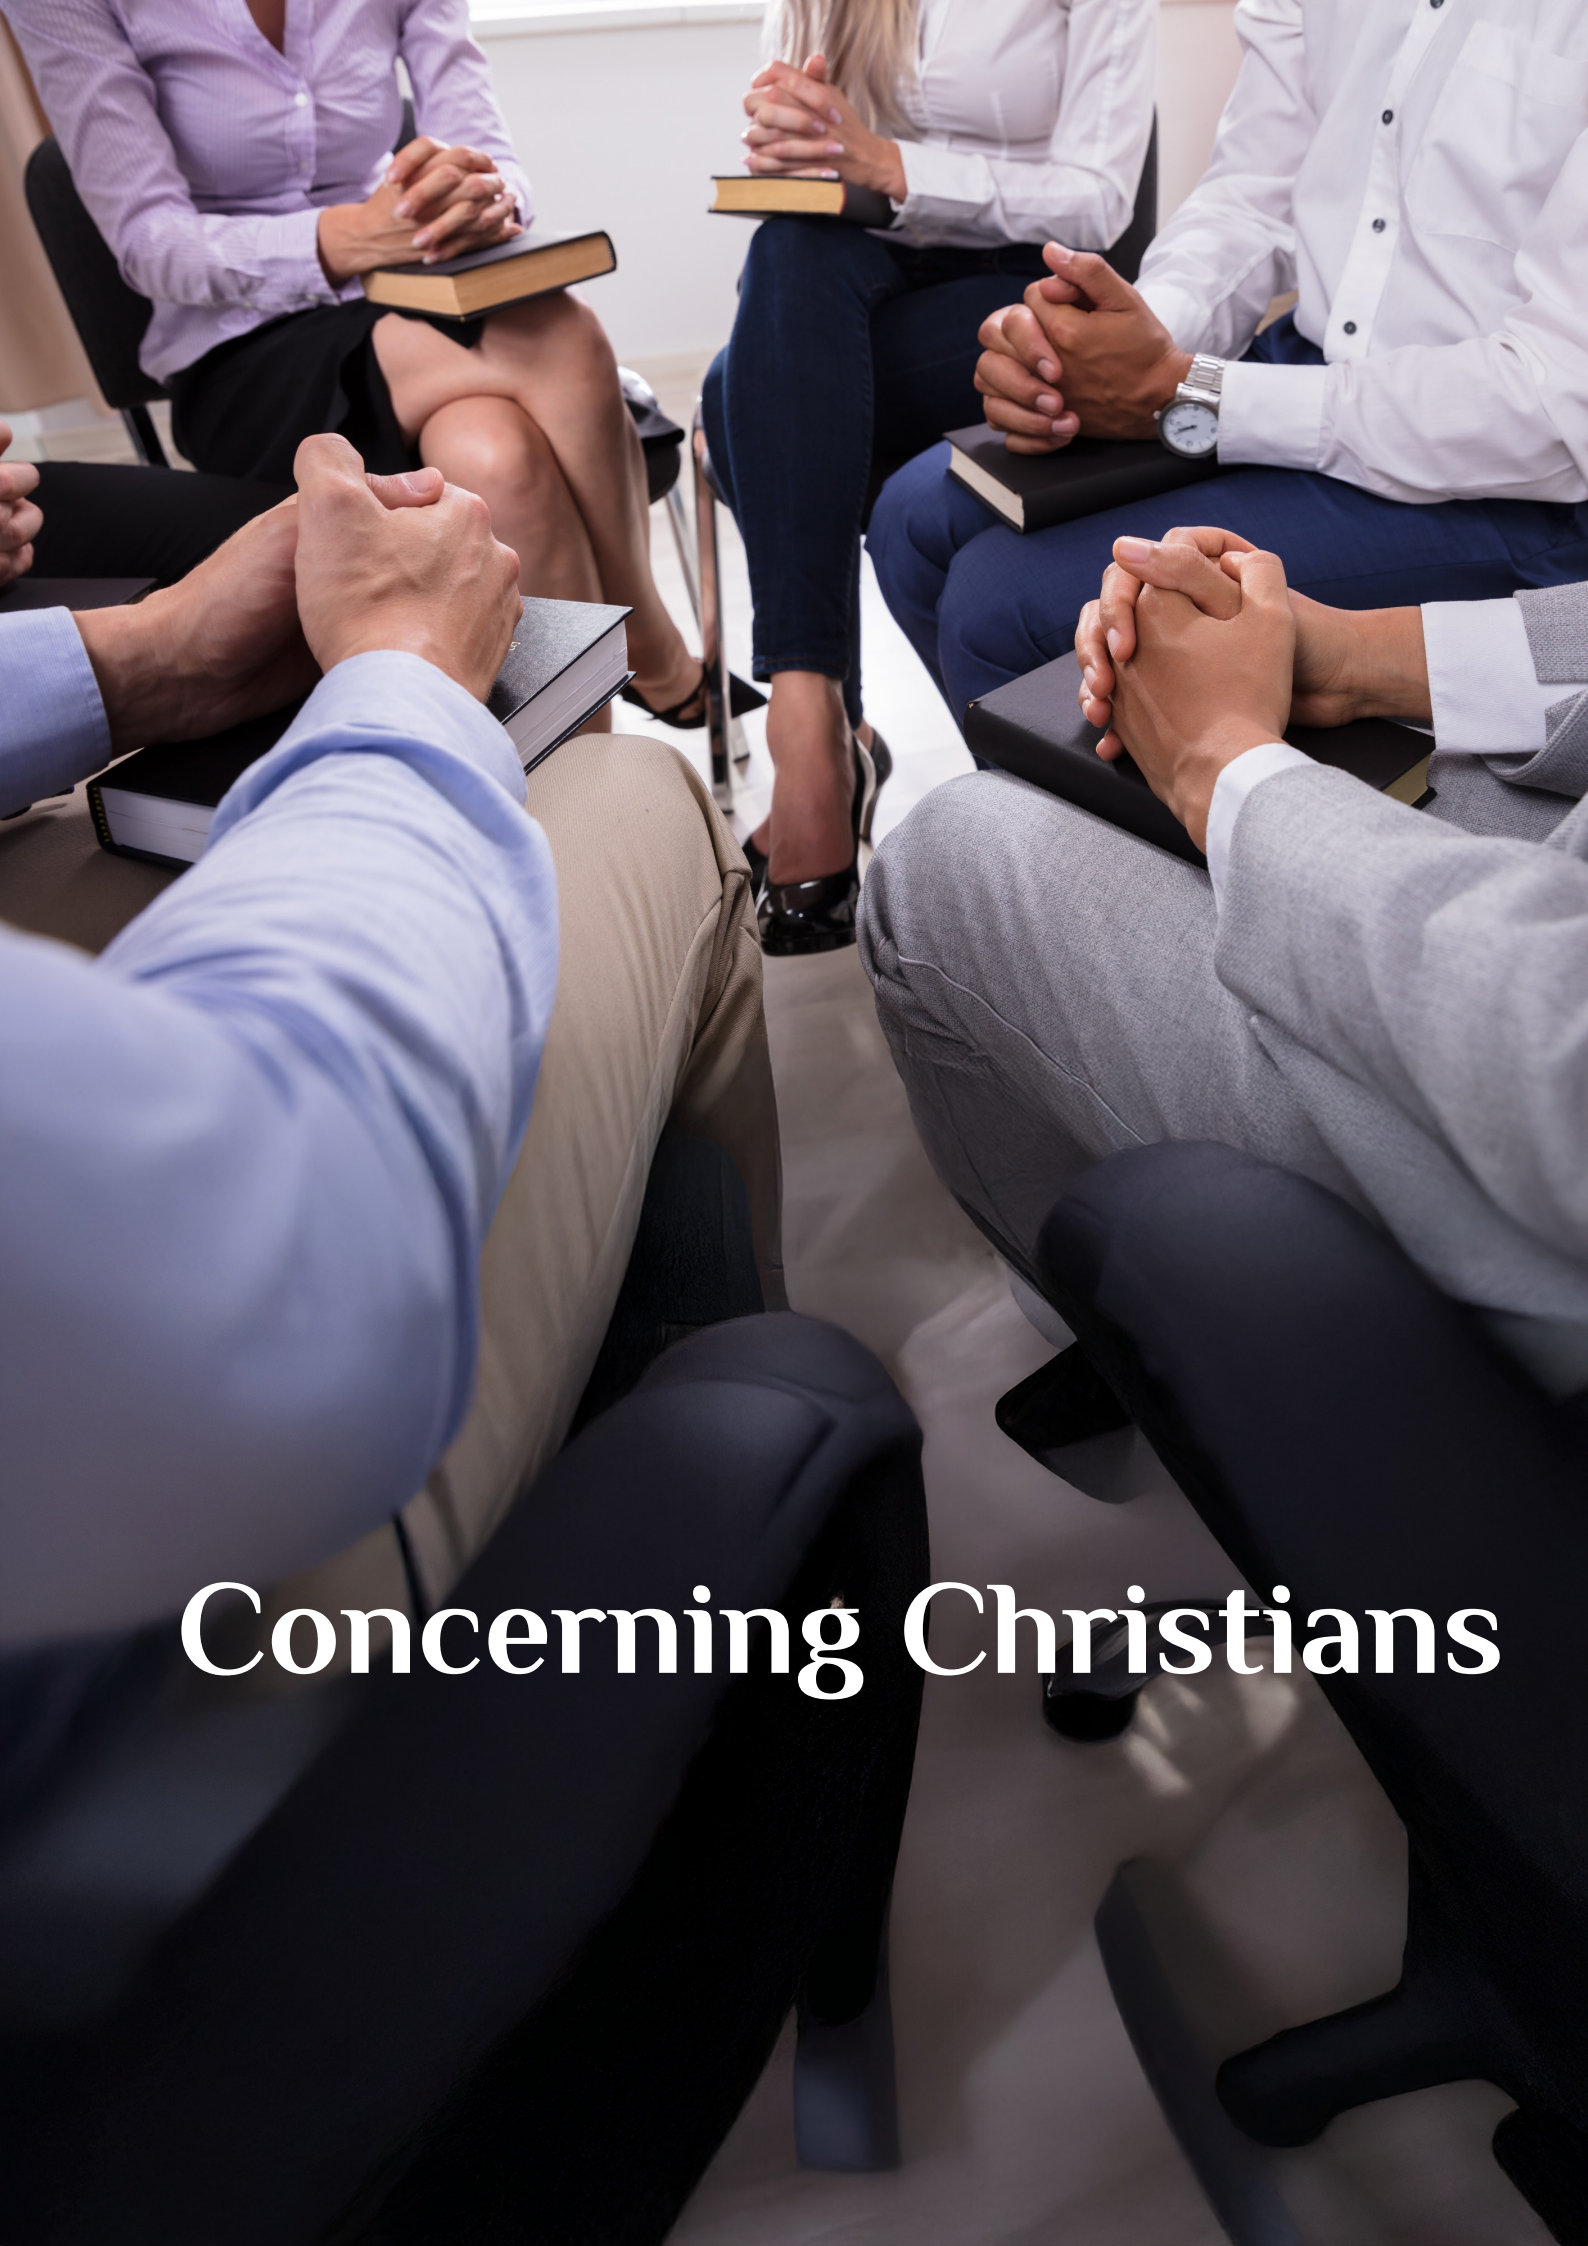

Any planet you go to, you will face the judgement. If you don't believe in Heaven, that you're going to the Dark-Planet whenever you die, you must work for that Dark-Planet you're going to. I Am also the Owner of the Dark-Planet. If you say you want to go to Heaven because you gave your life to Jesus Christ, you must also work for that Heaven you want to go. Heaven has class. I brought you to this Earth, and your Spirit cannot destroy. Whether your Spirit goes to the Dark-Planet or remains on this Earth as Spirit, if it remains on this Earth as Spirit, you will continue to disturb others.

If you say neither Heaven, Hellfire, nor the Dark-Planet exist, your Spirit can remain in your house. That's why ghosts disturb some people inside the house. These are the Spirits of those who didn't believe in life after death. Your Spirit will continue tormenting you because you don't give him rest. You're like somebody who went to the farm and came home to rest after hard work but couldn't rest. You want to live inside the house you built after you have died. Your Spirit must rest somewhere after you die. After they bury you, your Spirit needs to rest somewhere. However, your Spirit cannot rest because you don't belong anywhere. As your family members live inside your house, how could they see you? You will begin to torment them, jumping up and down, breaking glasses. They cannot see you, but they can see your impart as you break glasses, turning the whole house upside down. You're not tormenting anybody but yourself. You're tormenting yourself!

When you were here on this Earth, you failed to work for where you're going. For that reason, Satan can also use you to destroy people on this Earth after you have died. If you don't believe in Me, you believe in Satan automatically. Satan also believes in Me. I Am his Father. You should go and read My word. You may go to Heaven or Hellfire. Any work you do on this Earth will determine where you're going. It's not by force.

You should open the door and release many of My children you locked up in prison. You locked them up because they proclaimed My name. Your religion shouldn't disturb others. I want all of you to live in peace and harmony, to love one another. I love all of you. That's why I Am teaching you all these. All of you should gather together and work on this message. You shouldn't play with it. Any area you need to amend, amend, and any area you need to change, change. It's not by force. I Am the Owner of this Earth. If you serve any other spirit apart from Me, he can claim a whole city whenever he annoys because it's an abomination to Me for you to serve another thing. Blood is the food of all those spirits. They're dangerous to your life. I Am telling you the secret of what you serve. If you serve anything other than Almighty God, you're the one they will take if they want to take blood. If they take you, you'll begin to cry to Me. Didn't you see Me before you went and served those demons? If you bring them from where they lived, they will never return. Your life will become their home. If they want to suck blood, they will suck your own blood. I Am the Almighty God. I Am the Creator of every creature.

Concerning Christians

As a Christian, if I give you an Ordinance of how to serve Me, My Spirit will leave you the very day you abandon it. Whatever you do, you're on your own. Before you know it, the spirit of evil will take over, and you'll begin to commit sin. All the churches I chose that I gave My Ordinance, all of you have added evil spirit to it. That's why you're going to Hellfire whenever you die. You have turned My church into your personal business. If you do whatever I say I don't want in the body of Christ, They will judge you whenever you die. I Am the Almighty God.

If you're doing anything, and I keep telling you I don't like it, where do you think you're going whenever you die? You're going to Hellfire because I killed My Son Jesus Christ for this purpose. You're going to Hellfire. You're going to Hellfire, and there's no other word for it because I chose you to lay a good example for people. You cannot call yourself a Pastor or a church worker and continually sleep around with people. This one is an abomination to Me! Even if you don't give your life to Jesus Christ and you commit adultery and fornication, you invite another spirit to your life. You commit evil for your generation. Imagine what will happen to you when you say you belong to the body of Christ, working for God. You know what that means.

Any man or woman you lay with, the spirit remains inside you until you confess it out. Even after your death, the same spirit will continue in the lives of your children and their generation. That's why you see divorce everywhere, no wife, no husband because it's a spirit. I, the Almighty God, created you to be with your own husband. I didn't create you to sleep around. I will not force you to stop it if you enjoy it, but the consequences will never leave you and your generation.

Some of you sleep around, and you don't even know why you're doing it because a spirit controls you! You don't know the cause, and you cannot stop it because that spirit now becomes part of your life. You cannot stop it. That was why Jesus Christ came. It's not by force to follow Jesus Christ. If you know you can bear the consequence of the evil you did, after your death, your children will take over. As you're doing it, you will encounter sickness as well. If any of you want to know more about this, come to My son Radiant, and he will take his time to teach you what it takes to serve Me. I Am the Almighty God.

You have opened the doors for Satan to afflict many homes. It cannot stop because it's spiritual. You, as human beings, have physical and spiritual bodies. If you do some things physically, they'll begin to rule you spiritually. You cannot stop it, and you cannot tell the spirit to leave. I Am the only One who has the power to ask him to leave. But you say there is no God. How can he leave you? Some laws you introduced are controlled spiritually. If you introduce it, you can no longer tell the spirit to leave. I, the Almighty God, know how to appease them before they leave. But you say I don't exist. As you introduced that law, you think it's sweet, but it's an abomination to Me. If it's an abomination to Me, the spirit that controls it will ravage the whole land. I Am the only One who can stop it. Before then, many generations would have been destroyed.

Are you the one that created the Earth, or is the Earth the one that created you?

Who is the Earth? I, the Father! I Am the One who will tell you the solution to your life. However, you say you know more than your Father. You were happy when you were doing it. Why are you crying? You're like a little child who said to his father, 'Don't hold my hand, leave me, I can walk'. Yes, you can walk, but why did you fall? No matter how old you are, you cannot walk on your own because you're not older than Me, and I Am the Old Man. But you say there is no God. Any nation that says there is no God will live to suffer.

You who said there is God and deviated to do your own thing will also face problems. You will face the consequences. You have signed an automatic certificate of destruction for your coming generations. My son, tell them I, the Almighty God, don't expect them to change. But I Am only telling them to know so that whenever I carry out My assignment, they will know their evil is what comes back to destroy them. Some people worked for what you're enjoying now. Some people will also come to enjoy the destruction you're working for. However, I don't like destruction. That's why I Am warning you ahead. I Am warning you to prepare.

Can you fight the Father? Can you fight Me? You should prepare for it if you know you can fight Me. If you know you can save yourself, ignore all My words. All of you will go to a different land and beg as slaves, and nobody will accept you because of your evil. You see good, but you say you love evil. The nations claiming they know and serve the Father should take My abominations away. They're just wasting their time if they don't take it away. They should take away all the abominations I say I don't want.

You call yourself a Christian, sleeping inside the church twenty-four-seven, and as you go back to your house, all your family members are serving idols. They prepare food for you, and you eat it. But you've been praying in the church for the past three days. How can the prayers work in your life? All those idols are inside your house, and before any blessing comes, they will spoil it because they're evil. That's the problem all of you have in Africa! I, the Almighty God, don't work in darkness. I Am a Light. If you claim you're of light, let everything of darkness be far away from you. That was the reason I sold some of you as slaves so you could learn. I Am not a wicked Father. What you love to serve doesn't do you any good than to destroy your life and your generation. He will take joy away from you, take peace away from you, and destroy your home. But you still love to serve him. I said I hate it, that it's an abomination to Me. Do you think I Am a wicked Father?

You're a Christian; you have a concubine outside. How can you stop? Because your father had many wives before, and the spirit is living inside you. If that spirit lives inside you, he will be the one in control of your life. You even prefer to leave the church than to leave your concubine. That's why you will die! I Am the Almighty God. If you choose Me, then you'll leave the woman. If you choose the woman, then you'll leave Me. You cannot have two things together. O, I don't want to marry now, let me still enjoy myself a little bit. But you claim you've given your life to Jesus Christ. After all, God understands me; Jesus Christ has come, so we can always ask for forgiveness. Jesus Christ came and gave all for all of you. That's why My wrath is upon anyone who violates the words of Jesus Christ.

I choose you to be a Prophet in the church, but Satan gives you a woman, and that is causing your downfall. You will womanise and drink. You're still jumping up, claiming God still speaks through you; you're prophesying. You are finished! The worst part is that because your soul is tied to so many people, whatever you do causes problems for all of them. That's why you see a global recession. There is no money anywhere. Through the evil you're doing, you don't know that all of you connect to each other. If I dry up oil in Nigeria, it will affect Britain because all of you are connected to each other. You think you're wise. If I take My peace away, can you stand? Mine is to repair, not to destroy. But if you want My wrath, I have thrown it open to all of you to choose between life and death. This is the last warning I Am giving the whole Earth. I don't expect you to change. I only tell you to clear My own conscience because I Am a Human Being like you. Now I have told all of you My abominations.

In a land where famine ravages the whole land, some people eat and are satisfied. That's how I work. You're the one that will lose. But it's a warning to all of you. Every nation that knows what it believes in should carry on with it. If it's good, do it; if it's evil, do it. But I tell all of you to put your heads together and settle this Earth. Live together in harmony. Even if you don't serve Me, don't do evil to anybody. I hate evil! However, if I choose you as My nation and call you by My name, you cannot run away from Me. Any nation I put My logo that you're My children, you cannot wipe My name away. I Am the One who can wipe you away, and you will not live to tell the story. If you don't want Me, the Father, then you want demons; you want Satan. I Am the Almighty God.

Concerning Pastors

Did I choose myself, or did God choose me? You must ask yourself this question! If I am the One who chose you, people will know through the product that comes from you. All the Pastors are My inheritance. They don't tax people! When I started with Moses, I told him to take contributions for Me from the congregation, from those who are willing. Moses didn't ask the people on his own accord. He followed My instructions.

All of you must ask yourself questions. Did the Father choose me, or did I choose myself because I am hungry? Did I become a Pastor because I went to the university and found no job? Did I become a Pastor because the government didn't rule my country well so I could seize the opportunity to exploit the children of the Father in the name of God? I, the Almighty God, am waiting for all of you! You will not enjoy the house you built on this Earth. After you die, as you're being tormented in Hellfire, your children will not have peace inside the house you left behind. Your children will also enjoy the sin you committed.

All of you should go into My word and read about those who didn't serve Me well and what happened to them. I Am the Almighty God. Because of your greed, many of My children are afraid to go to church because they don't know what you, the Pastor will ask them again, maybe you will request for their head. You're not teaching them what they want. They can't understand the way they see themselves spiritually. You, as a Pastor, fail to teach them. Jesus Christ opens His hands, and nobody runs to Him. Anything you don't know in the Word - The Bible, you cannot get it, and the Spirit cannot enter them until you teach the congregation.

If you don't teach somebody not to curse her mother anymore, that spirit of evil will not leave her. There is a curse upon you if you open your mouth and curse your father and mother. Any time the Pastor opens his mouth and says, 'If you curse your father and mother, the curse will be upon you, your life will not be good', as you listen to him and obey, the spirit will leave you. How can they know when you fail to teach them? The spirit will continue to torment that person. That's why I said all of you should ask yourselves if I Am the One who chose you or if you chose yourself.

You're here on this Earth bragging that you're going straight to Heaven whenever you die. Who told you? They will judge you! Whenever you die, you no longer have the power over your Spirit. The power you have ends on this Earth. If there is anything you want to do, let Me do it before you. If you want to buy a car, let Me buy it before you. However, today, you'll buy a car, tomorrow you'll buy another one, and the day after tomorrow, you'll buy another one because something is controlling you. Go and marry three wives; go and impregnate different women everywhere.

Satan will use women to chain you down. When it's time for you to answer My call, that will be a chain for Satan to pull you back. After you have had children everywhere, what else do you want to preach? Satan uses many things to chain down My children. But no matter the kind of sin you committed, that's why I sent My Son Jesus Christ. All of you should learn about forgiveness and how to teach the way of holiness. If I teach you what you should do, don't deviate from it. If a mistake occurs by chance, any punishment that is due to that person should be given to him. It depends on the kind of sin he committed. You should learn how to forgive. After he has served the punishment, the work must continue so that those in the body of Christ will not repeat the same thing. It's very important to live by the Spirit of the Father. This is My message to the whole world. I Am the Almighty God. Jehovah is My name. I Am the Creator of the universe. I Am the Creator of life and death.

This is the word of Jehovah God Almighty

If you want to give your life to Jesus Christ, I want you to say the prayers below.

Almighty God, I realise I am a sinner because I've been living for myself. I come to You to forgive me and wash me with the blood of Your Son Jesus Christ. Send Your Holy Spirit to guide me henceforth in this journey. Thank You Almighty Father. I pray in Jesus name. Amen.

After you've given your life to Jesus Christ, you must look for a genuine servant of God and confess all your sins. If you see yourself in your dream doing what is contrary to the word of God, you must also confess it. You must be baptised genuinely in a flowing river. Then, begin to live a holy life. This is the journey. May the grace of Almighty God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit guide and guard your heart until the end in Jesus name. Amen!
